“ Hello granny! I miss you. It is a wonderful feeling to hear of all the memories certain individuals have of you. You know I got your back. That little midget baby of mine reminds us all of you. Yes you left your mark on him now I need for you turn him back into a good baby. He will be starting school soon and I will be turning off my phone. hahaha. Jr is doing well. He's the more humbled one (as of now) no need to worry about him. We love and miss you.

“ Pearlie, this is your cousin Shell. It still hasn't hit me yet that you're gone. I still find myself and Tabitha riding thru the parking lot of the nursing home hoping to see u sitting in the front door looking out. I've asked myself who am I going to call 3x a day and talk to? Whose going to check on me and Tab even though you were going thru sickness of your own? Whose gonna leave me voice mails saying "Shell this ya cousin Pearlie call me love you" I'm going to miss u with the same heart that loved and cared for you from day. Rest in peace. I knew you were tired when I spent the last Friday night with you and we're ready to rest but still tried to hold on because you how much you were loved and cared for. Your favorite cousin Shell. I miss u already. I know you and Alice ain't stop talking yet. Love and miss u both.

“ My mother, Beatrice Wolfe White often spoke fondly of Miss Perlie. They worked together at Warren Featherbone many years. Please accept my condolences to the family. I will be praying for your family. I guess mama and Perlie are catching up in Heaven! God's Blessings!
