

Alice J. Williams

September 22, 1950 - September 15, 2016

Alice Juanita Randolph Williams was born September 22, 1950, in Gainesville, Georgia. She was the eighth of nine children born to the union of Peccolia and Fletcher Randolph Sr., who preceded her in death. She departed her life and moved into Glory on Thursday, September 15, 2016, after an extended illness.

She graduated from E.E Butler High School in 1968 and attended Spelman College in Atlanta, Ga. She then moved to Cincinnati, Ohio where she met and married James Williams Sr. Alice was employed by the Cincinnati Board of Education for a number of years. While working there, she met the love of her life; Melvin Evans Sr., whom preceded her in death after spending twenty five years together.

God blessed Alice with a special gift of writing poems that inspired and encouraged her family, friends and co-workers. She was such an excellent writer that her poems won awards. Her greatest love was sharing fun and having great meals with her family and friends. She also was a humorous and loving woman of God who gave her life to Christ at an early age and told everyone she knew about "her" Jesus. Alice was a role model for her family and was admired by many friends.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one son; James Williams Jr., three grandchildren; Angelia, Ciara, and Alicia, her special niece; Elaine Nuckles, and her five sisters; Inez V. Yarbough, Christine Randolph Rucker, Ann Randolph Brown, Lois Randolph Abercrombie and Cynthia D. Randolph. She also leaves behind two aunts; Ruby Nell Gladney and Lucille Law, and one uncle; Hillard (Bud) Moon and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many loving friends. She reunites in heaven with her sister; Geneva E. Hawkins, and her two brothers; Fletcher Randolph Jr. and James M. Randolph.

We were blessed to have her for as long as we did. At this time, our hearts are broken, but we do rejoice in knowing she is at Home with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
