

Angela Nelson Jones

September 29, 1961 - August 30, 2021

Ms. Angela Denise Nelson, daughter of Major Nelson, Jr and Gwendolyn Nelson was born in Gadsden, Alabama on September 26, 1961. She graduated from Gainesville High School, Home of the Red Elephants. And later graduated from North Georgia College. Angela spent many years working at Belk as a sales associate and assistant manager. Angela later married and gained the last name of Jones. She was blessed and had a daughter, Kari Jones.

She was an avid football watcher. She loved to cook and learn about new foods to make. She loved elephants and always said that an elephant never forgets; and we all will never forget her. She loved to talk and make you laugh. She was always willing to help someone if she had the means. Angela was baptize and became an active member of the First Baptist Church. Her famous saying was "I am Blessed by the BEST"

Her beautiful life will forever be remembered by all of those she touched. To cherish her memories, Kari Jones her caring and loving daughter, her dad Major Nelson, Jr., her sister, Bonita Jones (Michael), her brother, Benjamin Nelson, Jr. (Lindsey), nieces, Marie Jones, Lily Nelson, nephews, Michael Jones, II, Noah Nelson, Andrew Nelson, Max Nelson, and Logan Nelson, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends(who can be the best people to have in your corner). To God be the glory!

Our sincere condolences to The Nelson/Jones Families. I've known the Nelson Family 50+ years and worked with Angela's Mother Gwen. Her Father was one of my teachers. Sis. Angela and her Sister grew up at First Baptist Church with my daughters. May God keep His Arms around this family and grant them strength during this difficult time. 🙏
