

Angelia Holcomb

August 31, 1956 - October 8, 2025

With heavy hearts and deep gratitude for her life, we celebrate the beautiful spirit of Ms. Angelia Marie Holcomb, who departed this life on October 8, 2025, surrounded by love.

Angelia was born on August 31, 1956, to the late U.J. Holcomb, Sr. and Lizzie Mae Holcomb in Gainesville, Georgia. She graduated from Gainesville High School in 1973 and went on to serve her country with pride in the United States military for ten years.

A woman of strength, compassion, and unwavering faith, Angelia devoted her life to caring for others—both through her 25+ years of service as a CNA in healthcare and through the kindness she shared with everyone she met. Her love for family was fierce and protective, and her presence brought comfort and joy to all who knew her.

Angelia was a devoted member of Antioch Baptist Church, where she worshipped faithfully under the leadership of Pastor Rodney Lackey, whom she held in the highest regard. She found joy in studying her Bible, attending Bible study, and yes—scratching her favorite lottery tickets. She also had a fun and vibrant side, and her love for LeBron James was no secret—she proudly claimed him as her “husband” and cheered him on with passion.

She is preceded in death by her beloved parents, Lizzie Mae and U.J. Holcomb Sr., her brother Eugene Holcomb, her sister Lillie Mae Holcomb, and her precious daughter Olympia Holcomb.

Angelia's legacy lives on in the hearts of those who loved her most: her devoted daughter Doneshia Randolph; her cherished granddaughters Jewel and Jaci Jenkins; her loving brothers U.J. Holcomb Jr. and Michael Holcomb (Sabrina), all of Gainesville, Georgia. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends—including her special friend Barbra Jean Wilkins whom she jokingly referred to as WDUN—who will continue to carry her memory forward.

Angelia touched many lives with her warmth, loyalty, and laughter. Though she may no longer walk beside us, her spirit will forever remain in the love we share, the faith we carry, and the memories we hold dear.
