

Anthony Bruno

January 28, 1942 - December 10, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Anthony Bruno, on 12/10/2024. He was a beloved father, grandfather, friend, and cherished husband to his late spouses. He departed this life surrounded by his daughter, granddaughter, and grandson, leaving a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories.

Born on 1/28/1942 off 5th Avenue in Manhattan, Anthony grew up in an Italian-American family, spending most of his childhood in Queens. As the eldest of three boys, Anthony found himself taking care of his mother and brothers as a young adult after his father passed. A person of unwavering character, hardwork and dedication, he was the first in his family to complete college and have a corporate career, working for AT&T for 30 years until retirement. Upon retiring in 1998, he moved to Georgia with his daughter, son-in-law, and grandchildren. He spoke fondly and often about his memories of New York and his former career.

Anthony was known for love of books, chess, cooking, blogging, classic movies and music, Broadway plays, Disney, the holidays, travel, animals, and of course, his family. He was a man of many and diverse interests and tastes. He was the happiest when he was spending time with those he loved, and he loved sharing new experiences with them.

Anthony leaves behind a family who will miss him deeply, including his daughter, Deborah, his grandchildren: Victoria, Richard, Daniel, Samuel, Josiah, Grace, and Johnathin, and his great-granddaughter, Aaliyah. He was preceded in death by his parents; Philip Bruno and Mildred Cuccaro Bruno, his brothers; Philip and Patrick Bruno, his wife, Barbara Bruno, and husband, Peter Martenson. His life was a testimony of perseverance, dedication, and the importance of family, and he will remain forever in the hearts of all who knew him.

A celebration of Anthony's life will be held on 12/21/2024, beginning at 1 pm, at Calvary Bible Church: 1829 Hanover St, Yorktown Heights, NY 10598. Friends and family are invited to attend and share memories of a truly remarkable individual.
