

Armechia Virginia Felton

September 28, 1959 - April 8, 2021

Armechia Virginia Felton, (61) was born September 28, 1959 to Thurmond Felton and Shirley Marshall in Brooklyn, New York. After leaving Miami Killian High School in Miami, Florida; Armechia was employed several years at Jr's Cleaners which was her family's business.

At an early age Armechia was reared in The First Born Church of The Living God; and as a young woman, she became a member of The House of Joy, in Miami, Florida. After relocating to Buford Georgia, Armechia began attending Hands of Grace House of Deliverance Ministry in Gainesville, Ga. Prior to her home going, Armechia reaffirmed her faith in Jesus Christ.

Armechia had an infectious laugh and enjoyed having a good time. She loved and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. Her smile would radiate the entire room whenever they were in her presence. And most of all she enjoyed giving them a few dollars when she could. Her grandchildren were the joy of her life.

Armechia is survived by; her daughter, Artricia Waring (Latrell Richardson), Grandchildren; Arquagah, Latrell Jr., Trellyny, Kentrelle, Dontrelle, Asar, and Egypt. Great Grandchildren; Star and Mason. In Addition to mother, Shirley Bell, sisters Andrea Green (David), Arthenia Moore (Jamal) and brother Arthur Bell III, a host of Aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
