

Calvin Varnum

June 8, 1951 - May 21, 2023

Mr. Calvin Varnum was born June 8, 1951 in Commerce, Georgia to the late G.W. and Mary Lizzie Rivers Varnum. He departed this life on May 21, 2023.

Calvin was educated at J.L. Williams and Bryan High School. However, at the age of 16, Calvin's life was changed with the death of his mother. Calvin's big heart and unselfish love decided to leave school and start working at Harmony Mill Grove in Commerce in order to raise his younger brother Marshall who was only 11 years old at that time.

As Calvin got older you could always see him walking in the Commerce community. He always said he loved to walk for exercise and to keep his blood pressure good. Rain or shine, you could find Calvin at Huck's, or at Hardees, or even at the CVS getting his blood pressure checked. Calvin loved Commerce and always smiled and waved to people passing through town.

Calvin was preceded in death by his mother and father Mary Lizzie and G.W. Varnum; his brothers Charles, Pete and Washington; his sisters Sarah Nell, JoAnne, Margaret and Mary Frances.

He leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Margaretia Henderson, Commerce, Georgia; brother, Marshall (Cherie) Varnum, Jefferson, Georgia; half brother and half sisters, Keith, Stephanie, Sherry, Jan; two grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and relatives.

“ I travel several times a week from Jefferson to Carnesville, for work. Ive been waving back to Calvin Varnum for years now. Always looking for him, I'd sometimes try to wave at him, before he had the chance to wave at me. For me, and I'm sure for many others like me, waving at "that smiling man holding a stick" was what you knew you'd be doing at some point along Homer Road. You found yourself looking forward to it. I know I did. His presence along that stretch of Commerce gave to so many people a genuine gift of humanity with a simple smile and a wave. Reading about his death broke my heart. My deepest condolences to his family and to those who knew him.

“ I didn't have the plaid knowing you Mr. Varnum but it breaks my heart what happened to you. A senseless act of evil. You were so loved by so many people, I just don't understand why people are so mean and heartless. I can tell by that precious smile you had, that you were a true sweetheart. But I know that you are in Heaven and walking and waving on the streets of gold now. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family and friends, to Anyone that knew you. Just from reading about you for the last few days and looking at that precious smile, I think All of our hearts got to know you. Let that sweet smile keep shining and let those beautiful wings keep waving ❤️🌹💙🥹.

“ The last 2 times I saw Mr Calvin were so memorable. We had dinner at Hucks and he was also there. As I was leaving he stopped me to tell me he was going to be 73 on his birthday, June 8! He smiled and you could tell he was so proud. Just about two weeks ago I saw him outside of Hardee's and as I left the drive thru I yelled out Good Morning and waved. He waved and gave the biggest smile and belly laugh! Sure will miss seeing him in Commerce!

“ I knew Calvin personally from when I lived on the same street as him as I got older I would see him every now and then and couldn't believe that he remembered my name but he did, this past year is the longest I've ever seen him and had conversations with him while I worked at Hardee's. Every morning he would come in tell me what he ate for breakfast, how much of his medication he had taken and tell me about his date with his girlfriend 😭 Calvin was a respectable person and he didn't deserve to lose his life like this, the last time I talked to him he asked me did I know why he never joined the service I said why not he replied I'm a lover not a fighter and we just laughed and then we did a little dance together and he said I'm a soul man and told me to have a nice day 🙌 that's what I remember and always will remember may he R.I.P. 🙏💙🌹💔

“ Mr. Calvin you were the sweetest, politely person you could ever meet. You were the kind of person that brightened everyone's day and with you're smile and waving. If everyone could be like you this world would be better. We loved to hear the stories you would tell. I could just sit with you all day just talking to you. You never met a strange people you met was like family to you and that's exactly the way everyone thought of you. I'm sure cause that's how you made me feel. You were an angel of God he sent you to touch lives and make people's day and you did just that. You were loved by so many and you will be forever missed but you will never be forgotten. There is so much sadness and broken hearts in such a small town because you touched each and everyone of our lives in a special way we loved you and you may not have known that personally but we all loved you. You was definitely heaven sent. May you rest in peace sweet angel and continue to touch hearts and lives from heaven above. Forever your friend Jamey Garvin

“ I used to bump into Mr. Calvin a lot at Hardee's when I used to work at the hospital. He always was happy and was glad to chat for a few. Such a beautiful soul! Rest in peace! ❤️

“ Mr Calvin I always waved back at you and smiled when I came to Commerce. Looked forward to seeing you each time. Sorry you had to leave this world like this. Go rest high on that mountain.

“ I didn't know you personally and you probably had no idea that everytime I saw you you made me smile. I looked forward to seeing you on my way to work, to seeing you wave with that big smile on your face. Thank you for being my sunshine on not so good mornings. I wish I had stopped to tell you.

“ Woodbine...Hucks ...The alley...
Hardee's...Corner Station...
Walgreens...Cvs... Homer Rd... Commerce...
And my heart will NEVER be the same. To know you was to love you. Many days and times it was you who would brighten my day. I will always remember my friend who's birthday is June 6... You're definitely heavy on my heart. May you rest in peace in paradise I love you “ What an amazing individual our community lost. Commerce Ga just won't be the same and I won't travel that road for a long time. I just saw him before I was hospitalized. He walked with his cane; smiled, and opened the door for me. Some people can't be replaced. He will not be forgotten for his passion love smile Wave . Rest in peace Mr Calvin

Mr. Calvin was happy person. Mom and I went to Hucks two weeks ago. He held the door for my feeble mom and I said Thank You and he said yes Mam. I love to see him waving it blessed our hearts. I can just see him waving going thru those Pearly Gates. We are praying for you at this time. He will be missed Gwyn Bond from Commerce
