

Charles Edward Colbert, Sr.

March 8, 1940 - May 21, 2016

Charles E. Colbert Sr., age 76 of Winder, GA was born in Barrow County to the late Thelma Wingfield-Hayes and Leroy Colbert. Mr. Colbert transitioned on March 21, 2016 with his loving family by his side. Charles Colbert was a graduate from Glenwood High School, attended Morris Brown College and Leadership Academy through Lucent Technologies. Mr. Colbert was a community activist, who believed in empowering his community through "Education and Christian" principles. He was a deacon at White Oak Spring Missionary Baptist Church, member of the Barrow County Board of Education, member of Barrow County Family and Children Service Board, served on the advisory board of directors to Bank South (Bank of America), served as a vice-president to the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, served as Chairperson on Barrow County Biracial Communities Board, member of Barrow County Planning Commission, was affiliated with the Mason Elks, and a member of the Brotherhood Social Club, and several other community affiliations.

He is survived by his beloved wife: Sarah Ann Colbert and four children (Charles L. Colbert, Jr., Stacey E. Colbert, Shanna Colbert-Shaite and T. Sharese Colbert).

Cemetery Details

Barrow Memorial Gardens

793 Atlanta Highway SE
Winder, GA 30680

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 27. 3:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

White Oak Springs Missionary Baptist Church
123 East New Street
Winder, GA 30680

Service

MAY 28. 11:00 AM (ET)

White Oak Springs Missionary Baptist Church
123 East New Street
Winder, GA 30680

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Edward Colbert, Sr.

October 22, 2023 at 04:48 PM

“ 25 files added to the album Memories Album

Wimberly Funeral Home - May 26, 2016 at 01:12 PM