“ I was just telling someone about the time we went to St. Simons & Jekyll, walking to the top of the lighthouse, and then walking on the beach. The time you showed me all of your wigs, so excited about the new one you had just got. Those were some good times - some sunshine in the darkness that you are thankfully no longer in. You were sunshine to me, and you still are. You are always in my thoughts, forever in my memories, and I have faith that we'll see each other again. I miss you, Ana. Sending all of the love & positivity to those who truly loved & cared for you <3
