

Christopher Williams

May 25, 1970 - May 30, 2021

Christopher Tyrone Williams was called home on Sunday, May 30, 2021. Chris was born to the late Hugh Williams and Nancy Hudson Gaines on May 25, 1970. Chris spent his final days in Atlanta, GA, the city he loved inside and out.

He was born and raised in Gainesville, GA. After attending Johnson High School, he joined the US Army and served in the Desert Storm/ Gulf War. He was honorably discharged and worked as a Maintenance Manager for Gables Corporations and other companies. He enjoyed every moment of repairing any and everything that he could.

He was a dedicated father and treasured his children Kayla Williams and bonus daughter Ashley Snowden. He expressed very often how much he loved them. He had a vibrant personality and always made people around him smile. That was the one thing that everyone loved about Chris. He was well known for his generous caring spirit.

Chris leaves to cherish his memories: Daughters, Kayla Williams and Ashley Snowden, Mother; Nancy Hudson Gaines, Siblings; Kelli (Calvin) Thompson, Mia Williams Latimore, Myron (Lucy) Williams, Torrey (Betty) Williams. He also leaves behind aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, loved ones, and friends that he thought the world of.

“ I will always remember Chris. Chris was the reason I was able to work for Gables Corporation. When I needed a job he helped me out. I will always remember him through his daughters Kayla and Ashley (my niece's). Thank you Chris for leaving wonderful memories. Rest in peace. You are done with the troubles of this world.

“ I am so grateful to God for placing you in my life for as long as he did. You were the ipidemy of the "boy next door". I cherish the life's lessons that I have learned through you. Here's one last smack of the lips for those home cooked pinto beans! I could write a book about the tales of Christopher Williams. Rest now and I will let the world know that you loved and were loved. To you my personal soldier. Again I say "rest now".

“ I will never forget the time we spent together. The summer's and every one of my breaks from school I was hanging out with you. Even as an adults we would carry on with each other, but we knew we had each other's back. I love you and will never forget our time together. 🥹
