“ Just know I will miss you with all my heart and I will continue being the best father that I can be to our lovely daughter. Even though PAIN&RAGE flows through my veins doing these sad times, I will never forget the good times we had back in the day in NC and how u stood by my side through the many of years I was away in prison, just know I really appreciate your realness and u will be missed. I have so much to say, for this tragedy caught all of us that knew and loved u off guard. But know this, our daughter will grow up, and she will make good on her education promises and have a good career in the medical field I promise u that. You raised a beautiful daughter, and u were strong minded, and worked hard. Just know u may be gone, but never FORGOTTEN!!!!!!

Love always
