

Curtis Erastus Giles

January 27, 1958 - August 30, 2021

Curtis Giles transitioned on August 30, 2021. He was born to the late Erastus and Jeanette Giles. He was a proud 1976 graduate of Monroe Area High School. He later attended Fort Valley State University and later left to serve in the United States Army. He served proudly from 1976-1979.

After leaving the Army, he began working at Universal Rundle, LLC. He started his entrepreneurial journey where he owned both a pressure washing and lawn care company. He also refereed for youth sports. He was a member of the Appalachian Shoals Missionary Baptist Church where he served in the men choir and as a Deacon. Curtis met the love of his life, Hazel, and they married August 1, 2015. Outside of family time, he loved to camp, travel and watching his favorite team "Alabama" ROLL TIDE!

He is preceded in death by his mother Jeanette Giles, father Erastus Giles, and sister Dorothy Giles.
