

Delver Dante Dryden

October 16, 1996 - February 25, 2023

Delver Dante Dryden, 26, of Alto, Georgia departed his life on earth Friday, February 25, 2023.

Delver was born on October 16, 1996 in Westmoreland, Jamaica to Shereen Veronie Pennicooke and Paul Dryden.

As a young pre-teenager, he moved to Georgia and went on to attend and graduate from Gainesville High School. After high school, he attended East Georgia College majoring in Business Administration.

In 2019, Delver married his high school sweetheart, Chelby Antonette Pemberton and together they began their new life as a young couple making lifelong memories traveling and enjoying spending time with family and friends.

Delver was an avid soccer fan. He loved watching his favorite team, Chelsea Football Club. He was a multi-talented 'jack of all trades'. From finances to auto mechanics, he could do it all and never turned down an opportunity to help family, friends and complete strangers.

He was a caretaker to many, a friend to all he met. He played an active role as an uncle to his nephews and cousins by birth and those by love. He was a big brother to all.

Delver is survived by his loving wife, Chelby; his mother Shereen Veronie Pennicooke, father Paul Dryden; sisters Sanalee Stephanie Scott, Stacy Ann Reddicks; brothers Canfield Anthony Dryden and Deandre Dryden; nieces and nephews; Jaheim Boothe, Jevhaun Harrison, Anton Burke, Okarie Mullings, Le'anna Pinnock, Dwayne Dryden, Da'Quan Anthony Dryden, Devahon Anthony Dryden and Darrian Devahno Dryden; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives. He will be forever cherished by his mother-in-law and Georgia 'mom' Cheryl Morrow.

His memory will live on through all of his kind deeds, kind words, and support for others. If you met Delver, you loved him. He had a smile that light up any room and brighten any day.

Private memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ I meet Chelby and Delver in my first year of college. You guys don't understand how happy I was to meet them. They were both so helpful in my transition from my island life to Swainsboro. Delver made the best stew chicken and rice I ever had up to this day. You know island people love family and food and I felt we were family. Going through the ups and downs of young adulthood having friends like Chelby and Delver was needed! I wish the family strength and sending a lot love to the during this tough time.

*With Love,
Marisha*

“ I will miss you my friend. Thanks to you and Chelby for being there for my daughter and myself. Know that you were my go to person on any problems that I had. You always had the right answers. It's really hard to believe that you're gone. You touched a lot of people heart and if nobody had never met you. They missed out on a kind hearted, loving person with the most beautiful smile ever. The more I type the more I get teary eyes. Just know that your Ga mommie, Cheryl, will make sure Chelby is okay and keep her in line. I'm sure it's hard sometimes. I'll make sure she stay in line at work. Lol! Anyway, I'm gonna always remember your smile. Keep watch over us my sweet friend and take your rest. To Chelby, Cheryl and the rest of the family. Hold your head high cause Delver was a strong person with good spirit and I'm sure he wouldn't want y'all to be strong as well and not feeling down. Just remember his smile cause that alone will cheer anyone up. I love y'all and I'm here if needed.

“ I fell in love with Delver the day he asked my daughter Chelby to the prom in 2015. That smile and his gentle spirit made me melt. I remember working on his and Chelby's college applications. I thought I was going to lose my mind lol but I got through all the hoops. When we dropped them off at college he looked at me and said Mommie will be fine, my heart was full and I knew he meant it. When he asked for Chelby's hand in marriage I didn't hesitate to give them my blessing. He told me I was his Ga. Mommie. I was so happy and excited to take that role on. He was the son I never had. I could go on and on about our special relationship but I will end by saying Delver knows his Ga. Mom loves him to the moon and back and I know he loves me.
I Love you forever My Son in Love!!!!
Your Ga. Mom Cheryl

“ This young my was my nephew-in-love and my heart is broken. I am so thankful for the memories that I have of our funny road trips. Hershey Park, Joshua Tree, Catalina Island, and oh yes the time he and my husband fell asleep and left us walking to the hotel from Disneyland. He know he loved my niece Chelby. He took care of EVERYONE with all that he had. I will never forget your smile, your laugh, you will be missed but NEVER forgotten. LOVE YOU nephew.
