“ December 12, 2025 would've been our 10yr wedding anniversary and it was my most 2nd saddest day of my life. Today is 1/10/26 & this year would mark 6yrs since you about to take your last breath but this year mark 6yrs since I entered a new year without you.

“ Hey Boo Bear. You would've been so proud of our daughter last night. She was honored for Honors Night for having a 3.75 GPA & A-B Honor Roll. I knew you would've been right there with me being the proud father that you was when it came to her. She is keeping her promise and excelling in school. Continue keeping a eye on us in Heaven. Also, I will get to together. Still trying to grasp life and being a single parent since you no longer here with us.

I miss you like crazy.

I love you like crazy.

I think about you like crazy.

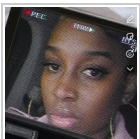

You forever have the Key to My Heart.

I forever be happy to know I carried your last name. I wish it was for longer though.

She started her new classes this month and so far she is doing the damn thing. It have a new Superman movie coming out this year and boy oh boy I know you would've been so hype to watch it. We miss you so much and talk about you so much. We think about you so much. You are the only man I ever met that kept his promises and only broke one but it was out of your hands. Thank you for showing and proving to me that I could've trust you to keep your word/promises that you made me when you were alive. Once again thank you for showing me and showing us what unconditional love feel like by actions and by words.

“ April 13th, 2023 had marked 3yrs since you left this earth/world. On that day and the whole weekend I kept busy trying not to think about it. On April 16th I had a breakdown and started to cry on my way home after dropping my friend and her boyfriend off at his place. It doesn't get any better and the pain is still surreal. “ Happy Heavenly 35th Birthday Boo Bear(3/19/23). I still brought your gifts and showed you love on your special day like I would've if you were still physically here. Cristál and I miss you every single day and we talk about you so much especially when we watch movies that became our family movies. I think about things you would say and try and say it in your voice cause that's the closest I ever get besides the music you left behind and my special songs, voice clips, and videos that I have the pleasure of re-watching or listening to over and over again. Thank you for being my light that I needed. Thank God for making our path cross that night and we exchanging our first set of words without knowing at the time where it was going to lead us. Thank you for blessing Cristál with your fatherly love and care and being there for her and not missing any important aspects of her life and thank you for showing her how a REAL MAN AND FATHER should TREAT, LOVE, CARE & PROVIDE FOR HIS WIFE AND FAMILY. THANK YOU FOR BEING THE BEST THING I NEVER KNEW I NEEDED & MY ONE IN A MILLION but most importantly THANK YOU FOR GIVING THE CHANCE TO LOVE YOU & HAVING YOUR LAST NAME!! YOU will continue living in MY HEART & MEMORIES!! I KNOW WE WILL MEET AGAIN UNTIL THEN BOO BEAR 1 4 3 INFINITE TIMES INFINITE

“ No one will never understand how broken my heart is. No one will never understand how my life is without you. I knew our vow was till death do us part, but I honestly thought I would've grown old and gray with you before death took one of us. You were only here on earth for 32 years, and I'm glad I was able to share 2012-2020 with you. You will always be my one in a million, and my best thing I never you I needed. You forever be my soulmate. 1 4 3 infinite times infinite Boo Bear

“ You would've celebrated turning 35yrs old and boy oh boy I would've tried my best to give you the best birthday ever. I really hate the fact your not here with me anymore Boo Bear. It hurts so bad. I swear the pain haven't stopped. The tears doesn't stopped. I'm still living my nightmare

Jeliah Phipps - March 17, 2023 at 11:47 PM

“ Today is March 17, 2023 and the time is 11:44pm even though I belonged resting for the day I have ahead of me all I could think about what this month means. Before it was happiness and love because I was able to celebrate your special day with you and try my best to make it better than year before. Trying make ways to make you feel extra special and love because you did the same for me on my special day but now all this month reminds me the beginning of when my whole world started to fall apart without me even knowing. 10 days from this date my world completely flipped upside down. 3 days later I celebrated what would've been your last birthday without even knowing. March 25th I was the last time I saw you walked away from me without knowing you wouldn't returned. God knows I try so hard to be strong and try my best to keep a smile on my face and love in my heart and laugh as much as I could because I know that's what you would've wanted me to do but it's so hard cause my smile isn't the same. My laugh doesn't sound the same. My love isn't there like I need it to be. Everyday is upward battle of staying afloat.

Everyday is upward battle of being there for our daughter and be strong cause I know she needs me even more now since your gone. Everyday is a upward battle trying not to breakdown and cry at any moment cause a TV shows, movies, animes, songs, memories, and what if you were still here. Everyday is a upward battle that I have within myself. How can one person continue to live her life like the biggest part of it isn't missing??? How one person smile the biggest smile when one of the reason and person for her biggest smile don't exist anymore?? How can a person laugh be the same when that person who used to make her laugh in a way that she herself didn't know that laugh existed till you brought it out of me?? How can I continue to be strong when I wanted to be weak I had you to hold me up?? It has been almost 3 years since you took your last breath and I swear each year it gets worse.

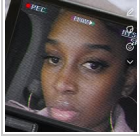

Call me selfish but I swear if God could've grant me 1 wish I wish to see you one more time. Just to hug you, kiss you, love you, hear your voice, and at least give you the proper goodbye that COVID took away from me including YOU!! Till then I continue THANKING GOD for BLESSING ME WITH YOUR MEMORIES AND LOVE. TILL THEN BEFORE I GO TO SLEEP I STILL THANK GOD FOR YOU. TILL THEN YOU CONTINUE WILL BE MY ONE IN A MILLION. TILL THEN I CONTINUE TO SAY "I LOVE YOU BABES" WHEN NO ONE CAN HEAR ME!! TILL THEN I CONTINUE CARRYING YOU IN MY HEART TILL WE MEET AGAIN!!! YOU FOREVER BE ONE REAL TRUE LOVE AND NO ONE AND I MEAN NO ONE WILL NEVER TAKE YOUR PLACE AND I WILL CONTINUE TO CARRY YOUR NAME WITH PRIDE CAUSE GOD SURELY DID BLESS ME WITH THE BEST PHIPPS AND FOR THAT I'LL FOREVER BE THANKFUL AND GRATEFUL!!! Till then let your body continue sleeping in peace and YOUR HEAVENLY VOICE CONTINUE SINGING IN YAHWEH BEAUTIFUL HEAVENLY CHOIR!!

*WE WILL DEFINITELY MEET AGAIN AND I CAN'T WAIT FOR THAT DAY!!! 1 4 3 INFINITE TIMES INFINITE BOO BEAR

“ December 12th, 2021 we would've celebrated our 6yr wedding anniversary, July 29th, 2021 we would've celebrated 7yrs of being together, & summer of 2021 we would've celebrated & known each other for 8yrs. Honey...I miss you so much & I try my best not to dwell on the fact you're no longer here with me because it breaks my heart oh so bad. Just last week Sunday (10/10/21) I was in depression & was getting swallowed whole & nobody knew & I was surrounded by siblings & family members I know who love & cares for me but I still fell deep into it. Babes just know I LOVE & IN LOVE WITH YOU SO MUCH, I MISS YOU LIKE CRAZY & YOU DEFINITELY WAS & FOREVER WILL BE MY ONE IN A MILLION LOVE. “ I created this video for your one year death anniversary and I know I'm late for posting it but I didn't wanted to come here and do it cause it truly hurts me to know and accept that you truly gone. I swear boo bear I miss you so damn bad. I'm tired of this pain I gotta live with every single day. I swear I want it to end so bad. Tired of my heart breaking into multiple pieces just thinking about you but yet I smile because of the love we had and shared, our conversations, and the memories. I still listen to every single voice clips you ever sent me whether is you talking to me or singing and I listen to your music as well. I try not to watch your videos and the snaps because it hurts way more that way. I miss you honey so bad. I'm just here trying to find myself in this world and honestly I'm not doing such a good job right about now. I'm honestly disappointed in myself. I'm not as strong as some people may think or believe that I am. Only Yahweh understands my pain and thoughts. I do miss you boo. I promise you I do and I swear if Yahweh grant me a wish I wish you back to me or wish to relive our lives together cause that was the best 7yrs of my life.

I know it has been a while since I posted but that doesn't mean I wasn't thinking about you and wishing you was still here and it also doesn't mean that my tears no longer flow cause it do as well as the other 2 I mentioned. I've just been trying to find a way to just push myself forward. Our daughter did graduate and wee both knew how happy you would've been for her. I took her out for the whole weekend to celebrate her success like I knew how you would've done it. We even went to your grave cause she wanted to show her daddy that she accomplish it and wanted you to be proud of her. We miss you boo and we forever will continue to miss you. We will forever always love you as well.

I space out and my mind wanders and I feel the hurt, pains and tears. I swear by now I would've ran out of tears but every time I think of you deeply the tears start to shed and my body and thoughts become overwhelming. Idk how I'll be tomorrow and I definitely don't know how I'll be Tuesday but I do know I continue asking Yahweh for even more strength. I love you forever and always till my last breath.

“ March 19th, 2021 you would've turn 33. People told me to still celebrate your birthday but I just didn't see the point. I was the reason why you started to look forward to your birthday since I did that one sweet gesture for in March of 2012 & I made sure I kept it so to the best of my ability. Other did that celebrate your life and not your death and that's fine but for me I rather would've wanted to celebrate it with you instead.

Anyways, Boo Bear I cried basically all week but I cried even more the day before and the day of what would've been your special day. I miss you like crazy and I really wish you here. I miss my ONE TRUE LOVE & BEST FRIEND.

Here goes:

On this was born the most perfect man I ever had the privilege and honor to have met. He saw in me what other people saw difference is he made it happened when he gave me his last name. Usually my post be truly long wishing you Happy Birthday but this year it is different. I didn't had the pleasure of wishing you Happy Birthday as soon as the clock strike 12am & giving you your gifts and cards while I sang you Happy Birthday out of key but regardless you always had thee most biggest smile on your face.

Boo bear there are no words to express and explain how bad I miss you and how my world has never been the same since the day you left on that unfaithful day. No one know the countless tears, pain, heartaches, heart pains and so much more I had to endure and go through since you left. Up to this day I still thank Yahweh for blessing me with you and up to this day my love and feelings for you hasn't changed nor it never will.

I miss you so much babes with every single fiber of my being and I think about you every single millisecond of every day. I love you TODAY, TOMORROW, AND FOREVER and I continue LOVING YOU and BEING IN LOVE WITH YOU till MY EVERY LAST BREATH. Thank you for the best 7 years of my life and 4 years of

I miss you babes. I truly do. You came into my life and changed so much & now you left and I don't know what to do. I got so comfortable having you next to me. Being my rock and anchor. The only man to ever wipe away my tears regardless of why I was crying. I swear to God I wish I could've bring you back even for a little bit. Why did God took away the man that fought for my heart and won it in the end. The only man I ever gave myself to wholeheartedly and knew that my heart was safe n secure in your hands. The only man who made me smile the brightest & laugh the hardest & now the only man who can bring tears to my eyes just by thinking about him knowing he's no longer here. You were my listening ear n vice versa. I miss our relationship babes. I miss our marriage. I miss our bond we had & I miss you so damn much. I'm so tired of crying but I just can't stop. I'm so tired of the pain but it still there. I want my family to be whole again. I miss our family & the time we spent together doing things. I miss our conversations. I miss hearing your voice. “ This was the 1st pic we took together on my new cellphone(HTC) that you bought me on Mother's Day the year 2013. The 1st pic I ever posted of us on Facebook. You was the 1st & only guy I ever posted & shown that I was with & loved so dearly & badly. I'm now in the month of March. The month where everything started to unravel in front of my eyes. The month where you celebrated your last birthday. The month where my started to live through my worst nightmare. The month where everything went downhill for us. I always looked forward for March because I used to try my best to outdo what you done for me for my birthday but I don't think I ever cane close but it was my time to shoe you how much I loved & appreciated everything you have done for Cristál & I....all your sacrifice & etc. I always thought I had this year to give you a better birthday because that's what I told you but little did we both know we wouldn't have that chance. Baby, everyday my heart really breaks for you & everyday I wish you were here. I had my King & Prince Charming. I had the perfect man that loved all my imperfections because it was perfect in your eyes. The one that loved me inside & out & the one that brought out & showed my true inner beauty, smile, glow, & laughter. The one I couldn't stay mad at for long. The one I used to refused to watch because I know automatically if or when our eyes met all the anger disappear & we smiled at each other. The one that people could've seen even if they don't care to admit it saw that we truly love & in love with each other. Till now I asking Yahweh why He took you from me?? Why give me something/someone so great, awesome, loving, caring, understanding, forgiving, romantic, singer, & so many more to rip it away from me. I swear babes if it wasn't for Cristál I wouldn't be trying my hardest to stand so strong & firm. If it wasn't for her idk mehn. I'm tired of the pain, tears, heartaches, sleepless nights, & so much more. I just want my BOO BEAR BACK. I want MY H€@RT BACK. I need my world to be whole again. I need my heart to be whole again. I need you in my life. Not spiritually but physically. I just NEED YOU. March 16th to April 13th will forever be thee worst days/weeks in my life. Idc what anyone says it doesn't get better as time goes by because next month will be a year since you left & it still feel like it happened just last night. I know Yahweh gave His strongest soldiers the biggest battles but omg I never thought it happen to me so quickly.

I gotta stop writing now cause if I don't I just causing myself more pain, heartache, & tears.

“ Hey boo. We went to the movies last night. The 3rd time we went since you past. Twice within the month of Feb n once for our daughter birthday. It feel so weird sitting at the end of the seat for the row cause that was your spot while I'm in the middle n Cristal to the left of me. Tomorrow going to be March 1st & I'm already thinking bout how everything unraveled for you & I in that month. I remembered everything from the time you found out bout the virus being at your job, to the slight symptoms you had, when you left work on the 16th of March to self quarantine thinking you was being cautious not knowing it was already to late. I remembered the last time I talked to you & FaceTime you. The last time I saw you walking into the hospital with me helping you not knowing that be the last time I would had seen you walk. I remembered the last time I slept next to you & held your hands, to the lastbtine we kissed & hugged & even you know. I remembered it all. It's hard to forget or push down my worst nightmare since I actually had to live through it. Can't believe it's going to be a year soon since your gone & next month also marks when you would've be 33yrs old but instead it just another painful memory for me. Next month will mark 11mths since you left & 11mths since I buried you. Honey, I miss you so damn much...it's so unreal how much I miss you & still wish you was here with me. I miss holding your hand while you drive. I miss us having our own karaoke in the vehicle. I miss everything about us boo. I still can't believe our journey got cut so short & so quickly. I really thought we would've had till we old & gray. I honestly thought our family would've gotten bigger & I bare you a son & daughter. I mean Yahwrh knows why He didn't allowed it to happen & I see why but I still wishes I had a mini you that was left behind so in that why I still feel like a part of you is still alive & next to me but instead all I have is memories of us. I remembered everything boo from the night we meet to when you gave me my 1st kiss & our 1st official date(how that night was so beautiful & right then I knew you was different). I mad that I have so much to say & need to vent & I don't have my best friend to do it to & I miss hearing your voice & you telling me babes once we have each other we get through this. We are Phipps & Phipps don't quit nor give up no matter what. We had so many goals & dreams.

Damn it...I miss you Dian. I really do. My sleep hasn't been the same at all since you left & I barely eat like I suppose to. Guess you won because your the only man to ever do that cause we both know I love my belly & sleep. Your the only man I cried every single month from the time you left till now & it seems like my tears hasn't ran out yet. Only man that I didn't even celebrate my birthday last year because you wasn't here to make it more special than the last one.

I love you boo bear. I'll forever love you till I take my last breath. I swear there be no other man like you & you always have & hold the key to my heart

“ Honey, you have been extra heavy on my mind for days now & the tears have been flowing even more crazy than normal. I also want to distance myself from everyone & just be alone. I want you back babes. I hate missing you like crazy. I hate this void feeling I have in my heart, mind, body, soul & world. I hate laying on the bed we used to share & look to my right & you isn't there anymore. I miss your presence so bad babes. I miss your voice, laughter, smile, & everything else about you. I wish I can see that boyish grin I didn't like yet love & how you used to raised your eyebrows while doing it. I miss hearing you sing & clapping afterwards or saying "yeah" in a deep voice just to see you smile because you knew I supported you 1,000,000,000% in everything you wanted to do. I just miss you babes & everything about you. I really wish my love could've kept you here. I really wish it could've of. A year is soon upon me & I've yet fully come to terms of this nightmare I'm living which is my reality. We were supposed to grow old together & die right after each other because we couldn't bare the thought of living without each other at that age that one of us would've died from a broken heart. I wasn't supposed to be a widow at the age of 33 when you left. I just want to disappear & be M.IA. from everything & everyone. I just want to see you, hold you, kiss you, cuddle with you, & just be there with you. I just WANT & NEED YOU honey. We didn't even get the chance to actually have a life together. Tomorrow Valentines Day & I can't spend it with you but I've been listening to my Valentines Day song you sent in 2015 & the video you sent when you were in AK. I don't like the fact that I'm living my life without you babes. You were supposed to be here with me mehn. Our journey wasn't supposed to ended so quickly and bluntly. So when that time comes, I saw the cemetery placed the fake flowers in your vase & Cristal & I got rid of the old balloons & placed some new ones, till when or if I'll ever be able to fully be at peace without feeling anger when I go to your grave but I do know I'll be there to removed & place new balloons every chance I get. Might not be as often because that I said how I feel when I go there now but I'll try & make sure Anestis doesn't pass before I replaced them, I miss you babe... I really do... it's so hard redefining my life back to how it was before you came in because of you & the words you always used to say "babes, you don't have to do everything by yourself" I'm here for

“ Forever is a long time
And that's how long
(That's how long I'll love you)
That's how long
(That's how long I'll love you)
Forever
(Forever)

I swear as long as I live and breathe I'll love you forever and no man will ever take your place. You were my everything. My laughter, smiles, real life size teddy bear, love, my heart, and so many more. I don't know why it had to be you. It's like I'm trying so hard to truly come to terms but I hate it. I'm tired of the tears and the daggers in my heart. I've been having anxiety/panic attacks lately & through the grace of Yahweh he helps me control it. I wanted you to come back to me. I needed you to come back. Why didn't you come back mehn babes?? I know where you at It's way better than where I'm at but we never get the chance to finish our story and complete our goals and make our family and buy our family home. We never got that chance honey and it's not fair at all. People who we both know did, done, and doing so much bad things on their marriage and can celebrate their anniversary why we couldn't did so this year and all the years to come. Why we didn't get our old and gray?? Why did till death do us part came so quickly??? Damn it.....why.....why....damn it. I don't know when I'll ever be the same again?? Idk when I'll be Jemiah again but until then I'll just continue wearing this mask that I'm wearing “ Yesterday was the day we would've celebrated our 5yr anniversary. Today made it 8mnths since you passed away. I'm trying my best to stay the individual you brought out in me but each time it's getting harder to do so. Like my heart is turning cold and slowly a icebox is building up. I just don't know anymore. It has been almost 2mnths since I've been to your grave and Yesterday I cried just like I cried on Friday. I'm trying not to cry today but every time I try I always fail. I love and miss you boo. I really do. I found my soulmate....the one I literally gave my heart n all to for him to ripped away from me and it sucks so bad. I try so hard not to dwell in it because I don't want to fall in a deep depression since I'm battling it every single day and I gotta be strong for Cristál n be there for her. Just know I miss you honey....I miss you a lot. I'll forever love you

Jeliah Phipps - December 11, 2020 at 11:01 AM

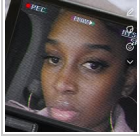

“ So today is my birthday and I started crying days before dreading this day & cried even more last night leading up till this morning & cried even more today. I activated my fb page just to screen record the video you posted 5yrs ago on fb singing me happy birthday because that was & forever be the closest I'll ever be able to hear your angelic voice wishing & singing it to me. Today was bittersweet & a lot of people wondered why I didn't do anything for myself on my birthday but I could I compared to the smiles, joy, laughter & loved I used to get & feel from you on my special day. There's no comparison at all. It soon be 8 months since you've been gone & it soon be what would had been our 5yr anniversary. This is why I was dreading this month to many 1st for me before the year comes to an end & I know I feel which one worse than the one before. As I send this tears are falling & my heart is beating fast & my stomach is in knots. I swear that feeling never seem to ease & each time it feels like my heart is about to give out on me. I dream about you a lot but I can't seem to remember what it is when I wake up but I do hope Yahweh allows you to visit me tonight singing & wishing me happy birthday like you did for our daughter & we have at least one more dance on our wedding anniversary so I can hear you tell me I love you babes & I can say it back & we kiss at least one more time before the year ends. I know where you at you better than where I am & I'm kinda understanding why Yahweh did it the way He did because even though I needed you He knows that Cristál needed me more but I wish you was kept to keep our lil family complete. I love you boo bear & I'll forever will. You always on my mind & forever will be & there will be multiple songs that I will hear & automatically warms my heart & make me think bout you especially the last song you sang to me on my birthday last year. I'll hear it & even though it will sadden my heart it make me think bout you & that special night & smile & say thank you for making every single one of my memory a memorable one each and every year since 2013 till 2019.

Jeliah Phipps - December 07, 2020 at 11:43 PM

“ So the month I been dreading to come is finally here. It's the 3rd day of December at 2:20am & you heavy on my mind while I played your music playlist with tears falling from my eyes, pain in my chest, and my stomach in knots while I gasp for air. I thought I would had been able to hold back until the day before my day but I thought wrong. Honey, oh how I miss you. I'm finding all kind of ways to numb this pain but it not helping at all. This pain will never go I'm so sure about. I can't believe the one person I finally gave myself & my heart to wholeheartedly isn't here no more. The one thing I was scared most about is the one thing that came true. We had our lives planned out. From Cristál graduating from elementary, junior high n college. To you and her father daughter dance. To us being chaperones at her school dance & doing our dance that would had embarrass her to how we would had conduct ourselves for her 1st date. We had our children name picked out & you had the 2 dogs you wanted along with their names. We had our own logo & pictured how we would decorate our dream home. I'm so sorry we never got the chance to accomplish none of the above. Yahweh knows how bad I wanted and I still do(even though not going to happen) to have your children so bad but it didn't happen because Yahweh already knew what we didn't. I'm going to sleep with Key To My Heart playing on repeat. Thank you for my dreams even though it be brief and I can't remember them but I know it's you. I'll forever love & miss & you always be on my mind & live on in my heart.

“ I want my teddy bear again. I need my teddy bear again. I miss my teddy bear. I miss you boo bear. Why did you leave me here all alone?? I just wanted you to come back to me. I needed you to come back to me. Our lil family is incomplete without you. Our daughter cried today because she misses you. 1st time in a while she did that and it caused me to cry. I know you visited her on her bday and wished her happy birthday just to let you know that she was happy you did. Honey, I'm trying my best to be the strong woman that you met and knew but babes I didn't had to be that no more because you came into my life and now you gone it's so hard to keep it back up when I'm so broken on the inside. I do dream about you but when I wake up I don't remember my dreams but I know it be happy dreams because my heart does feel a lil bit better. If you only knew how bad I wsged Yahweh had blessed me with DJ. I so badly wanted DJ. I wanted a mini you left behind but it's almost a year since you felt and it have not happened yet so I know it's not going to happen at all. This Tuesday begins Dec 1st, 2020. The month was not looking forward to at all is finally here and I already feeling my spirits breaking down. Don't worry I'm going to keep as much things that belongs to you and wear them as much as possible just to feel you near me. I gotta stop texting now cause if I don't I just going to cry. I love and miss you so much everyday. You forever live on in my mind and heart and you forever have the key to heart. We continue making you proud of us and continue watching over us

“ Yesterday Nov 26, 2020 was my first major holiday without you and I'm glad to say I held up strong for our daughter sake but deep inside I was crushed. Next week is the starting of December....the one month I'm not looking forward to at all and I'm asking Yahweh for strength starting now. I did my best going without crying during Thanksgiving day yesterday but of course I failed coming into the wee morning of Black Friday. Tears fell & my heart break but it wasn't as bad so I'm guessing Yahweh is answering my prayers by making me strong for this journey he have me on. Just know everyday I say I miss my husband & I still tell you I love you before I go to sleep & the night before I pictured you holding me while I fell asleep in your arms. Damn it the tears falling pretty hard now. I should stop now so it doesn't fall more. We miss you & yesterday wasn't the same without you boo. We will & shall meet again & when we do I pray that Yahweh show our daughter that we finally got the chance to be united again. Dian you forever be on my mind & live on in my heart

This truly showed me what I already knew which is MY LIFE AIN'T THE SAME WITHOUT YOU HERE. I miss MY EVERYTHING & MORE. I wish I had a hidden talent to go back in time & if it's allowed I would have done things differently. I would had find you quicker & love you longer & we would have our home & children. If I wasn't allowed to change anything I would had just enjoy watching how our story began that one faithful night & where we had our 1st dance which I actually heard last week & automatically like usual you popped up in my mind & it took me back to that same night. I smiled so hard & felt so sad at the same time. One thing I know for sure & through the grace of Yahweh I'M GOING TO ACCOMPLISH EXACTLY WHAT WE HAD SENT OUT TO DO before you passed away. I already got 2 of them going & 1 looking real promising & all I'm hoping & praying for is to allow everything fall in place. I'm not that angry anymore & I'm not questioning anything anymore because I knew the truth & all I can say is I'M SO SORRY IT HAD TO HAPPEN TO SUCH A SWEET LOVING CARING UNDERSTANDING GENUINE MAN LIKE YOURSELF. You in a way better place & I leave those people in YAHWEH HEAVENLY HANDS & I know when that time comes they have to answer to HIM. I'm now restoring what I had before which was MY CRAZY UNBREAKABLE FAITH in YAHWEH & everything I'm doing & planning to do I'M WALKING BY FAITH & NOT BY SIGHT for I know Yahweh have me on this journey to STRENGTHEN ME & have me ready for whatever HE has in store for me. I love you & I will forever love you. Just keep walking with me spiritually each step of my waking way & continue protecting your lil family & I know you know how badly & deeply we miss you so.

“ I miss you so much. Our daughter birthday is this Friday & I'm trying so hard to be strong & not cry but everyday so far I'm failing especially tonight because I basically been crying almost a hour now. I hate putting on a brave face & I know I'm slowly dying on the inside. We made plans on how we were going to celebrate her birthday this year & now you not even here to see her & be here for her now she hitting double digits. The big 1-0. It wasn't supposed to be this way. We were supposed to grow old together with our children and grandchildren. Not me here crying myself to since you passed away on April 13th. I don't know if I'm able to push through. I have no one to hold me up & build me up for this difficult journey. I swear if I only knew you would had been gone so early in the year of 2020 I would had love you even more than how much I already loved you & you & I both knew how much I loved you. If my love alone could had saved you you would had been right here with me instead of 6ft under. I have so many first to face without you. Our daughter birthday, Thanksgiving, my birthday, our anniversary, Christmas, New Year's 2021, Valentine's Day 2021, your birthday 2021. We didn't get to accomplish anything we had planned as a married couple. Everything is left undone. I just want you back. I need you back. My life hasn't been the same since you left me. Every night before I go to sleep I still Thank Yahweh for bringing you into my life, thanking Him for allowing us to find each other & loved each other till the very end. I still thank Him for you because you definitely was & forever be a blessing to me. I really wished we found each other back then so we could had more years together. “ I posted this 3yrs ago on my Facebook page and every single word that I wrote from that day till the day you took your last breath I meant it. Even now you're gone this is exactly how I feel. I know the vows we took said till death do us part but I never knew it be so quickly. If I could had turned back the hands of time & find you quicker so I could had love & be in love you with longer I would or if I could had yes from the 1st time you said you go make me your wife I would of. I know they say don't question Yahweh because he knows best & day it all makes sense but for right now I would like to know why he took away a very big piece of my heart. Why I gotta feel this way & endure this pain?? The one person who would hold me & say everything going to be alright babes because I got you & you got me & we go make it through together is no longer here. The person I want to reach out to & hold hands with while I'm driving or just laying in bed I can no longer do. The person who knew how to put a smile on my face when I'm feeling down or just by being next to me I feel safe. My security is no longer there. My bodyguard is gone. My singer, friend, best friend, lover, companion, headache, happiness, husband & so much more is no longer here. All I have is these memories that plays on in my head while I stay up at night looking at the spot you once lay down on or looking at the bedroom door hoping to see you walk through or checking my phone to see a text from you saying you miss & love me, asking if I'm still up(well knowing I was) or just saying you on your way home to me so you know I can finally sleep in peace. I HATE the FACT you NO LONGER HERE WITH ME. I HATE I CAN'T HOLD, HUG, CUDDLE OR KISS YOU ANYMORE. I HATE TRYING TO BE STRING when I'M SLOWLY DYING & BREAKING DOWN ON THE INSIDE & I have no one to talk to that truly understands MY PAIN!!! I'm lost in this world & slowly drowning in my pain, tears, sadness & depression but at the same time I'm trying my best to stand firm & strong because our daughter needs me & honestly if it wasn't for her I really don't see the reason to keep moving on in life. I would had just wallow myself in this terrible despair & see the days goes by until I know I'm able enough to face the day or anyone(including family & friends) ever again. No one see my tears. No one sees nor feels my pain. No one understands what I'm going through. I'm still where you once was & I feel even more empty because not even them knows what I'm going through & I don't think they care (could be wrong). All they see is I'm up & moving around but don't never wonder what's going on with me on the inside. I miss you & I forever love you & that will never change. “ March 25th @ 3:30pm was the last day I saw you alive walking you into the hospital. March 25th @ 9:51pm was the last time we spoke & facetime each other. April 13th @ 11:08am was when I received the most devastated news & my world came crashing down. April 25th was the last time I saw your body & was in disbelief. Every single day we spent to the every last one I remember it like it was yesterday & everyday those moments keep replaying in my mind along with all our memories together. Worse feeling is reliving your worst most nightmare over & over again in reality

Everyday Facebook reminds me of all our memories from the past & it breaks my heart even more. I try picking up the pieces but the pieces keeps on breaking.

“ It's still unreal to me babes. The longest I been without you was in 2017 when you went Alaska and Cristál n I was still back home. That was 3 months, a week and 5 days without you and now we have to live our lives knowing you're gone with no return. It hurts boo. It really & truly do. Not a day goes my heart doesn't breaks for you and my arms reaches out wishing I could touch and hold you. I miss you honey and I love you

“ Not a day goes by that you ain't on my mind. Not a day goes by where I don't feel a ounce of missing you because I always do. I try so hard not to cry because I know when I do it's so hard for me to stop. Just to feel you close to me I re-read our text messages, listen to your voice clips, watch our videos n listen to your music. Honey, Yahweh knows how much this breaks my heart every single day and night. I still wish you was here with me. I really do but I know i got to be strong for our daughter and that's what you want me to do. Tears running down my face while I write this n the pain always seems to be worse each time. I forever love, miss n be thinking bout you boo bear.

Jeliah Phipps - May 30, 2020 at 04:54 AM

“ This is how I feel and I will continue to feel this way till the day I die. You're the one who captured my heart and the one I gave my entire heart to wholeheartedly. Every time I think about you I smile because of our wonderful memories but just the same tears falls because it a reminder once more that's all I have cause your no longer here. Honey I swear the only reason why I'm trying my best to stay strong and have the strength to do so is because I know I still have our daughter I got to take care of. I know she needs me otherwise I don't know where I would be and how mindset really would be since you're no longer here. I drying my own tears and my heart aches so bad it have time where I can't barely breathe and that's no lie. I wish so many things and wish if things was done differently if you would still be here with our lil family. Only Yahweh knows and I shouldn't question his reasons why because he always knows best. I love you forever and I will continue carry your last name in HONOR OF YOU, THE MAN THAT YOU ARE & THE LOVE WE SHARED. Continue looking down on us and tell Delano I said hi. The 2 sweetest guys with the nicest hearts left way to soon. I love you boo bear 🥺💔

“ Honey....we literally started our lives as husband and wife and it came to a tragic end. Nobody knows the pain I face and endure everyday knowing you're no longer here with me. Everyday I'm living a nightmare that will never end. We had a friendship since 2012 till the day you died. You was and still M¥ H€@RT. You was my best friend, lover, companion, provider, protector, fighter, favorite singer, boo bear and so much more. Our marriage and friendship was definitely one for the books that no one will ever understand. I just want you back in my life. I try everyday to be strong because you always used to tell me you admire that about me how strong of a woman I am. You was my Superman and I was your Wonder Woman now I'm here without my Superman. Babes, this pain is unbearable and unbelievable and God knows I try to stay strong for our child sake but it's so hard because the one person I could have leaned on is no longer here. The person who used to wipe away my tears is no longer here. The person who used to make me do my Tridactyl laugh(what you used to call it) is no longer here. The person that would make me smile just by looking at me and give me butterflies every single time is no longer here. God knows why I used to have up so much barriers and walls because when I love someone I love real hard and everything within me and God and you know I have you All of Me till the very end. I always told you My LOYALTY BEGAN & ENDED WITH YOU and I meant that. You have impacted Cristal and my life the best way and I know we will never forget about you. You forever live on in our heart and our memories. Nobody and I mean nobody will and can never take your place no matter how hard they try. Just know I will relive every single moment with you in a heartbeat. I give anything just to hear you sing, your voice, your touch and just to see you. I forever carry on your last name till the day I die to keep honor on remembering you and our years together. We had 7yrs n 10mnths of a beautiful n wonderful friendship and 4yrs, 4mnths n a day of marriage and yes we had our ups, down, good, bad, ugly n inbetween but in the end we knew OUR LOVE FOR EACH OTHER WAS PURE. If God could grant me one wish God knows I wish for you to be here with me. My life won't be the same knowing your not here but I know you would want me to be strong and keep pushing and I will just for you n our daughter. You and her was and still my world. My ying and yang. My gonna end it and say thank you for everything, the memories, the laughter, the smiles and the love. Thank you honey. I in YOU and YOU in ME has WE BECOME PERFECTLY ONE. YOU got the KEYS....PROTECT IT. 1 4 3 FOREVERMORE till I die. Continue to R.I.E.P. babes till we meet again 🥺🥺

“ Dian my classmate, former coworker, and friend. We've known each other for years but our friendship grew when I started at TSA. I remembered the day I came out on the floor and you saw me and said yes good peeps going to be working here. You made working there a lit easier for me since I didn't know much people besides you and a few other classmates. I thank you for those wonderful memories we shared at work, at your wedding and other outings. I will miss those conversations we had that were just pure jokes. You are missed. RIP Dian.

“ Every time I saw you, you would never be shy to give me those big ‘ole bear hugs that you always gave me from high school days and throughout adulthood before you left the island. We matured into successful and respectful adults in our communities. I will never forget the jokes and vibrant spirit we shared throughout all adversities. I will truly miss you my friend, but most importantly, I will never forget your genuine love, honesty, sincerity, and million dollar “subtle” smile that lit up a room in pure darkness. I will always remember your melodic voice when you sang. We all have memories that will last a lifetime.. #gonetosoon #myheart hurts #
