

Ebenezer Osunlalu

September 4, 2009 - December 7, 2023

Ebenezer Olawale Osunlalu Jr, 14, of Lawrenceville, Ga, passed away December 7, 2023, with his mother by his side. Ebenezer was born in Lawrenceville (Gwinnett County) GA, September 9, 2009 to Ebenezer Olawale Osunlalu Sr. and the late Ashley Osunlalu. He is preceded in death by his mother, Ashley Marie Osunlalu (Poole).

Ebenezer attended Grace Snell Middle School in Gwinnett County, GA, where he played in the orchestra.

Ebenezer played the violin and was very talented at it.

He also enjoyed playing football. He played for a travel local team in Gwinnett County called Grayson Football.

Other than sports and band, Ebenezer enjoyed playing on gaming systems and spending time with his friends.

He was smart, ambitious, and ready for anything Ebenezer's life is celebrated by his family:

Father: Ebenezer Olawale (Ashley - Deceased) Osunlalu Sr.; Brother: Isaiah Ayomipe Osunlalu; Grandfather: Adedoyin (Veronica) Osunlalu; Aunt: Elizabeth Olatokunbo Ogunbo; Uncle: Emmanuel Olusegun Osunlalu. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and relatives and friends.

“ GLOWING TRIBUTE TO MRS ASHLEY POOLE-OSUNLALU (MADAM “O”) AND EBENEZER OSUNLALU JR. (HERREDERO)

On December 7, 2023, the throes of death snatched both of you away from the Family through a vehicle accident on Scenic Highway, Lawrenceville, GA.

This news of your passing was a rude shock to everyone in the Family; and since then, we have had to live with these traumatic pains, hoping that time would heal. But time has failed to heal.

When this heart-wrenching news was conveyed to us over the telephone, we wished they were a misdirected call or a prank. Unfortunately, it was about both of you and the agonizing news was for us to bear. Oh, my God! Two members of our family were suddenly gone! Our daughter-in-law - Ashley Marie Osunlalu (nee Poole) - and our grandson - Ebenezer Olawale Osunlalu Jr. - were no more. What a sad day we will continue to remember! We wept uncontrollably, intermittently asking God why?. The cruelty of death stared the family in the face and took away our Jewels, and abruptly ended the bright and assured future of Madam “O” and the son, Herredero – the First in the next generation of The Osunlalus – as we fondly described him. We wept as if our tears might somewhat bring you both to life. I banged my head, soliloquizing at the misfortune my headship had brought into the Family. This is a cry we shall live to cry for the rest of our lives.

Madam ‘O’, you gave 15 years of your love and life to this Family. You were an added value to our Family. You integrated seamlessly into the culture and traditions that were completely alien to you.

You never for a day betrayed the confidence your late Mom reposed in you as a good girl when she gracefully gave her consent, on behalf of your Family, to your marriage to our son, Ebenezer.

Madam ‘O’ (as in Osunlalu), you were an exception to any stereotype. You were a dutiful wife and loving Mom, as well as responsible. You made your family proud amongst us, and we reciprocated by extending our open arms of genuine love to you. You were respectful to the core – an uncommon trait in this part of the world.

Herredero, you were a grandson we would urge to grow taller. We wanted you to be the tallest in the family. You assured us you would. Each time you came to visit, we would measure you up to Grandpa to see how you fared in height. We were proud of your academic success stories.

It is disheartening to realize that your dreams were dashed suddenly. Your life was cut short in the accident that did not spare your Mom either.

Madam “O” and Herredero, we thank God for you. We were blessed to have you in our Family. You left an indelible mark in our hearts. Loving you was never hard but saying goodbye was.

While we continue to mourn you, we pray that the Almighty God rest your souls and grant us the fortitude to bear these very painful losses. And may your memories be a blessing to this Family.

Forever loved.

Mr. & Mrs. A. O. Osunlalu

It breaks my heart and I don't know why I'm so angry. You are so a sweet and respectful kid. How you stand to protect your brother blows my mind. Rest in power hero. I love you!
