“Bo we are definitely from the same tribe where we learned the art of “laughing and talking” and love of ancestors, elders and family. I will miss our conversations and your sense of humor. Knowing you are with your beloved and the ancestors helps to soothe the void you leave in my life and I pray that the many memories of you bring some comfort to Stacy and the rest of family. I love you cuz! “What a man, what a man, what a mighty fine man!”
