

Eugenia Robinson

March 7, 1963 - April 4, 2024

Eugenia "Jean" Robinson was born on March 7th, 1963 in Jamaica, New York to the late Willie and Margaret Robinson. Jean was the youngest of 5 children born to a beautiful couple. She was called home to the Lord on April 4th, 2024.

Jean's journey started in Jamaica, New York where she was born and raised. Jean completed her education at Bayside High School before making Georgia her home. Jean held many job roles and responsibilities throughout her lifetime. Jean prided herself in providing excellent customer service in her job roles. She was a well known Taxi driver in the city of Winder for many years. Before becoming disabled, she was a part of the management team for Save-A-Lots Winder, GA.

Jean loved being surrounded by her family and her fur babies. She enjoyed shopping and collecting different antiques and Betty Boop merchandise. She had a deep passion for planting, cooking, and loved to try different foods.

In addition to her parents Willie and Margaret Robinson, Jean was predeceased in death by her brother William "Teddy" Robinson, sister Patricia "Pat" Robinson and granddaughter Maiy'e Martin.

Jean leaves to honor her legacy and rejoice in the memories of her: Two Sons: Daniel Slaughter (Constance), and Harold Slaughter (Jennifer), and Two Daughters: Alemetra Slaughter, and Michelle Slaughter (Rick). Eight Grandchildren: DeBrasha Lyle, DaNaisha Slaughter, Damari Slaughter, Damiyah Slaughter, Derante Hall, Haven Slaughter, Remi Martin, Harold Slaughter Jr, Adam, Nevaeh, and Daniel.. Two Brothers: Ronald "Ronnie" Reed (Betty), and Robert "Bobby" Robinson. Three Nephews: Christopher Reed, Robert Robinson Jr., and Ricardo Robinson. Three Nieces: Tanea Reed, Christina Reed, and Dawn Robinson. A host of close friends and relatives.
