

Frankie Tate Strickland

September 23, 1944 - January 6, 2025

Frankie E. Tate Strickland was born September 23, 1944 in Gainesville, GA to the late George “Bill” and Mary Alice Tate. Frankie quietly entered into eternal rest Monday, January 6, 2025 at Northeast Georgia Medical Center following an extended illness.

Frankie attended Fair Street School and later received her GED from Gainesville Adult Learning Center. She was employed in the poultry industry most of her adult life. She was later employed by Chicopee Manufacturing Company until her retirement.

Frankie had a heart of Gold. She said what she meant and meant what she said. She enjoyed fishing, cooking, seeing, and working in the church. She was a loyal member of Saint John Baptist Church where she served on the Senior Usher Board, cooked in the kitchen and sang with the Angelic Voices Choir. After the closing of Saint John’s Soup Kitchen, Frankie started working at Hickory Grove CME Church Kitchen and sang in the choir.

Frankie was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years Certus Strickland;
