“ My sweet perfect grandson, oh how i miss you so much already. I hate that you will never know just how much I loved you & how much joy you brought into my life. I never thought i could love someone else just as much as i love my own kids, until you came along. I anticipated your arrival, for what felt like ages. The day you were born was one of the most proudest moments of my life. God blessed me with my first grandchild & you were angelic. Although you left us entirely too soon, i will forever cherish every moment we spent together, from watching t.v. together, every bottle feeding, diaper changes, our naptime. Every moment will be cherished & near & dear to my heart. Until we meet again, granny loves you stank stank. ❤️🙏❤️
