“ To the Quarles Family. Your dad was a great man. I can remember going to his church in Jefferson GA years ago and he had me and my family stand up and let the church know how he knew us and I was pregnant with my twins and he made a joke about God saying be fruitful and multiply. He will truly be missed

My sincere condolences to the families and friends, and New Salem. Pastor Quarles was an amiable, humorous person who had a large memory bank . He had a gift for recalling faces and conversations , I was drawn to his jolly cheerful persona and his sermons about June Bug. I want say "sit down servant and rest a little while, and may your journey be a heavenly paradise.
