“ Uncle James was such a great guy, I know how much he loved my son T. J., his face would light up when T. J. was a little boy and I would bring him to Mama Sara's house. I couldn't go without him because he would always ask "Where's my boy?" and T. J. loved Uncle James...they would sit on the front porch and have their lil conversations. I don't know what they talked about. And he would always give him some money when we left...LOL
