

James Tabor

December 21, 1959 - September 5, 2019

Born to Lilly Ruth Ta'bor and Felton Ta'bor December 21, 1959 in Washington, Georgia at Willis Memorial Hospital.

He was called "Pee-Wee" as a child. James Sr. was a strong-willed man raised in Melrose Apartments. James Ta'bor Sr. was very patriotic always flying the American Flag over his doorstep. He was a proud Air Force Veteran who worked in the Medical Field as a Phlebotomist while actively participating in the birth of his two sons. He was a well-traveled man. He has travelled to the Philippines, Korea, Germany, to Mississippi, Texas, and California. Out of all the places he traveled, nothing appeased him more than being at home in Hall County. James Matthew Ta'bor Sr. was a father, a best friend, a husband, a veteran and most of all a man of God.

He is survived by five children: three daughters, two sons; four siblings, three brothers, one sister and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I had the pleasure of working with JT for many years and going to the gym with him. We had many good conversations at work, a lot of those pertaining to his faith in God, and from knowing him I know he is with the Lord. I will miss you my friend but I will see you another day, save a treadmill for me. Rest in peace.

*James Tabor Sr.
I know that this man loved God !!! He was not a perfect man but Roman Chapter 3 Verse 23 says. For all have sinned , and come short of the glory of God. Even though he lost his memory he never forgot God and accepted the blood of Jesus Christ as payment for his sins years ago. I know his at peace in Heaven but will truly me missed here on earth.*
