

Javarius Delon Crews

February 3, 1975 - June 9, 2023

Javarius Delon Crews was born on February 3, 1975, to his mother Dezerie Crews-Hall and his father Leroy Jenkins in Atlanta, GA, being raised by his grandmother Gloria Berry. Javarius attended Blalock Elementary and CL Harper High. Javarius better known as "fat-man" and "spider-man" was a very loving and humble man with a strong will to live; He also loved to sing and rap. In 1999 he met and married Crystal Overton-Crews.

Javarius worked at Walmart and had many other jobs. Javarius joined the Lively Stones of God where he was baptized on September 4, 2016. Although he was a man of few words, he also played a lot of pranks on those close to him.

Javarius leaves to cherish his memory; his wife Crystal Overton-Crews; three sons: Yunandis Crews, Javarius Crews Jr., and Tileem Overton, two daughters Makiyah Overton and Zykia Overton, two grandchildren Zylin Mitchell and Lauryn Overton. His siblings Santeesh Crews-Williams (Walter), Corey Crews, Reneesha Crews-Walton (Derrick), Arnitra Hollman, Johnny Hollman Jr., Chantel Berry (Monteze), three aunts Bridgette (Justin) Morrison, Natalie and Debra Jenkins, five uncles James (Dorothy) Berry, Rodney (Keisha) Berry, John and Donald Jenkins, Jerald Berry, and stepfather Alvin Hall and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Javarius may be gone but never forgotten!
