

John Butts Jr.

May 5, 1929 - September 19, 2022

Mr. John Butts Jr. was born May 5, 1929 to the late John Sr. and Willie Butts of Gainesville, Ga. He gained his wings on September 19, 2022 following a brief illness. He is preceded in death by his wife Anne Butts, parents John and Willie Butts, sister Carrier Lou Hudson, and brothers Doyle and Henry Butts. John Butts was always eager to assist and give back to the Gainesville community that he loved. He started his entrepreneurial endeavors at an early age. Some of his business ventures include a record shop, Sparkles, Entertainment Center, a grocery store, among other things to give an outlet for his community. He was the first valedictorian of Fair Street School. He also attended Morehouse College alongside his friend the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory sons Jonathan Butts, Patrick (Amanda) Butts, and Corey Butts. Sisters Betty Butts and Joyce (Willie) Mitchell. One brother Jesse Butts. Grandchildren Mia Turner Bledson, Jonathon and Bianca Butts. He also leaves behind six great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I worked with Mr Butts for many years at Stat Delivery. He was always a very courteous and kind person. He helped me in so many ways to get my route completed in a timely fashion. If I was on a route, then had to make an unexpected route to Alabama, he would take a van, get it loaded and filled with gas ,then meet me someplace so I would not have to drive back into Gainesville before I started the long trip at night. HE was a wonderful friend to me and my husband Jim Abee. Jim kept in touch with him for years after we moved to FI. We often spoke of him and wondered how he was doing. Jim passed away 2 years ago, due to Alzhimers disease. Perhaps they can talk over old times at statt in Heaven. Mr. Butts, your family has lost a treasure in your passing.
