

Juanita D. Lee

December 17, 1930 - March 7, 2025

Juanita D. Lee was born on December 17, 1930, in Yukon, West Virginia to the late Rosalee Wright and David Clanton. She passed on March 7, 2025 peacefully surrounded by family. As a teenager she moved to Villa Rica, GA with her mother and completed high school. She then moved to Atlanta where the family attended Flipper Temple AME Church. From two marriages she produced three beautiful children. She was an avid walker and was known for walking places instead of taking the Trolley when possible. Later in life while living in Senior homes, she enjoyed listening to Blues music with her friends and a quick hand of Pitty Pat. Johnnie Taylor was her favorite and Bingo as well. She loved going shopping in Thrift stores and has a vast collection of pocketbooks.

Juanita was known for always having a snazzy purse. She later moved to Gainesville, GA and attended St. John Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by both parents, her brother Leslie McKinney, son Horace Lee, daughter Charlene Lee, as well as both of her husbands.

She is survived by her daughter Rose Brown (Willie), grandchildren: James Lee, Lemitha Lee, Jamars Lee, LaWannika Newton (Marlon), Willie M. Brown (Brittney), five great grandchildren and two great- great grandchildren.
