

Julia Randolph Etheridge

July 15, 1944 - September 20, 2025

Julia Randolph Etheridge

An angel was born on July 15, 1944, and concluded her earthly assignments on September 20, 2025. She was the first born of the late James Hoyt and Nancy Lee 'Sis" Randolph.

She served diligently in her family church, Rucker Memorial Baptist Church. She was an alumna of Fair Street and E. E. Butler. She was a part of Metro Atlanta-Gainesville Connection, Sunshine Seniors Food Ministry.

She supervised the "Cushion Room" as "Sassy" at the General Motors Doraville Plant for over 30 years.

She sported the name "Red" as the In-home "Coach" for the Atlanta Falcons. A die-hard passion winning or losing and winning every argument to support them.

She freely shared her wisdom, love and contagious smile to all that met her. She was married to the late Charles "Dragon" Etheridge. She leaves to cherish her sweet memories, her faithful Daughter Rev. Loretta Mathis and several stepchildren; her sibling Joe E. Randolph (Deidra); sister-in-law Martha Randolph.

Grandchildren: Lakendra McIntosh and Richele Mathis (Jamaal); Great Grandchildren Raigen, Rahjah, Jeremiah and God daughters Lisa Niles and Sonya McIntosh; God son, Theodore McDormett and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

She was preceded in death by Charlie McIntosh Jr., Charlie McIntosh III, Major Ware and Jimmy Lee Randolph.
