

LaMichael R. Hendrix

July 4, 1980 - January 25, 2022

LaMichael Rashawn Hendrix was born July 4, 1980, in Gainesville, GA to Michael Hendrix and Kathy (Ken) Millsap. LaMichael departed this life on January 25, 2022.

LaMichael joined St. Paul United Methodist Church in Gainesville, GA, at an early age. He later joined Life Church in Atlanta, GA. LaMichael was a faithful servant of the church and it was in the church, while singing in the choir, that music became his heartstring.

LaMichael was a graduate of Gainesville High School's class of 1999. An exceptionally talented thespian, he performed in a number of stage plays. He was a member of GHS Troupe 2445, under the direction of Pam Ware. He went on to perform throughout the US, including Busch Gardens and Marietta's NEW Theater in the Square, to name a few.

LaMichael furthered his studies at Valdosta State University, graduating in 2003.

It was at Valdosta State that LaMichael pledged Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

Known as "Reverend Ice", he contributed to his chapter and others in countless ways.

LaMichael loved cooking and organizing events. He was the go-to person for everything. You never had to worry when he was in charge, as he did it “right and in order”.

LaMichael was preceded in death by a number of immediate family members and friends.

LaMichael leaves to cherish his memories, his son, Sean Michael Lilly;

Parents, Michael

Hendrix and Kathy (Ken) Millsap, Grandparents, Doris Hill and Louise Gaudlock; Siblings, Travon Hendrix and Kenisha Millsap; Nieces and Nephews, Jordan, Elaina, Trenton, Tristen, Ashton, Cameron, and Kayson; and a host of family and friends.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Hendrix family. Brother Hendrix was an exemplary Alpha Man. In the time that I knew him, he was always stepping up to do the work and looking for ways for us to do things better. He was an inspiration to all who knew him. - Brother Gary Sutnick “ LaMicheal was a member of the Contemos travel choir for the North GA Conference of United Methodist churches. As a high school student, he shared his natural musical gift to the Glory of God. He was able to perform as a soloist and as a part of the larger group. LaMicheal was able to minister classical and contemporary pieces with ease. He met no stranger and easily melded with this group of youth who were diverse socially ,ethnically, and culturally LaMicheal traveled across the United States with Contemos sharing God’s love thru song. A diverse group, Contemos , like LaMicheal embraced the gifts of each person without judgement. They wore a signature patchwork quilt vest to symbolize how their differences made them a close knit group. LaMicheal represented himself, his family and his church with excellence. Confident yet humble he never faltered in his ability sing til the power of the Lord came down. We loved him and were blessed to have known such a gifted young man. The celebration of his life was a fitting tribute.

“ LaMichael was someone who always generated a sense of warmth and love wherever he went. Kind, friendly, and non-judgmental, he embraced people from different walks of life and made you feel accepted in his presence. Elementary school through high school years aren't always kind to many of us, but being in classes and in theater with LaMichael was an honor. He was a full of light and love.

LaMichael was genuine, talented, humble, and full of charisma without having to even try. You don't have the opportunity to meet many people like him in this lifetime, and his impact has reached far as evidenced by those lives he touched. He was such an amazing person and I will miss him immensely. May his love and legacy live on with us forever.

“ I've been trying to remember when I first met LaMichael, but I can't. It feels like I have just always known him. We went to school together, did theatre together, went to parties together, kept in touch over the years, and in 2019, I had the good fortune of planning our 20th high school reunion together. LaMichael was a true friend-- kind, generous, caring. He made you laugh. He made you feel loved. He was a social butterfly, the glue that helped hold our class together, long after we graduated from GHS. He was talented-- a lion on the stage, both literally and figuratively-- with a beautiful voice. I think what I admired most about LaMichael was his open mind and open heart. He fit into many different social worlds and brought people from all walks of life together. I doubt he ever met a stranger, and when he became your friend, he always had your back. I am still trying to wrap my head around a world without LaMichael in it. I love you, LaMichael! I hope you knew how loved you are. Sending all my love to LaMichael's family.

“ Everyone loved LaMichael. I'll bet there's not a person in this world who has an unkind thing to say about him. He was such a kind and gentle soul. He had a beautiful voice and was so talented. I admire him for always following his dreams. When it was time to plan our 20th high school reunion, he volunteered even though he wasn't a class officer and didn't have to. He put so much thought and time into it. It was great having him too, because he was everyone's friends and had made intentional efforts to stay in touch with so many people even though he lived far away. He was so beloved. This is such a loss for the world.
