

Letitia Yvette Gantt-Douglas

March 17, 1967 - April 10, 2026

Letitia Yvette Gantt daughter of the late Benny Gantt and Mary Louise Keasler (John) entered into eternal rest of Friday April 10, 2026 at Emory St. Joseph's Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia.

Letitia or "Tish" as she loved to be called was born in Central, South Carolina where she attended the School District of Pickens County. In 1990, she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from the University of South Carolina.

Letitia was employed as a Behavioral Specialist for 20 years with the South Carolina Department of Mental Health where she served as a front-line mental health professional.

In 1997, Letitia relocated to Atlanta, Georgia where she was employed at Delmarva Quality Consultant for individuals with Disabilities and the Heartis Senior living Facility as a psychiatric specialist. She had a special passion for young adults, particularly those with special needs. Gifted with patience and compassion, she had a remarkable ability to teach life skills and nurture each client in a way that made them feel seen, valued, and loved.

Letitia served as a minister at New Mercies Christian Church in Lilburn, Georgia under Pastor Jesse Curney III, where she demonstrated and declared the gospel of Jesus Christ through mission and community. She fulfilled a life of Godliness, Purpose and Love.

Preceding her in death along with her parents is one brother Clarence France of Minnesota.

Letitia is survived by her daughter, Keneisha Mayweather (Alwon) of Oakwood, GA; three brothers Patrick Gantt (Leticia) of Atlanta, GA; Christopher Keasler (Schonna) of Blythewood, SC; Quentin Brandon Keasler of Dallas, Texas; one sister Nancy France of Fayetteville, NC. Two aunts Mary Ruth (Jerome) Gaines and Evelyn Woodruff; two uncles Jackie Armstrong and James Armstrong and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Letitia loved traveling, having made several trips to Jerusalem. She also enjoyed eating at specialty restaurants throughout the city. But most importantly, she cherished being MiMi to her grandchildren Ethan, Evelyn, KaliRose and Karter who brought her immense joy.
