

Martavious "Talay" Rashad Pittman

December 22, 1987 - December 27, 2020

Talay was born "Martavious Rashad Pittman" on December 22, 1987 to Kimberly Sims and Fredrick Pittman in Gainesville, Ga.

He was preceded in death by his Grandparents, Mrs. Barbara Ann Sims and Willie Pittman.

Talay attended Gainesville High School where he was an excellent basketball ball player and a joy to be around. He never met a stranger; he would always welcome you with a smile. He loved music and had a gift with lyrics. He was so creative he became an Artistic Entrepreneur.

Talay always had a plan. Talay graduated from Gainesville High School in 2006. Then he attended Gordon College as well as West Ga Tech. Music was his passion, he used his lyrics to help reach people with his creativity. He was a lovable person who motivated and encouraged others. He would often say, "A try is the only difference between a failure and a winner". While accomplishing many goals Talay started a clothing line. During the long days and nights, he was working to build his legacy. Whenever he would run into a obstacle, one of his favorite sayings to get him through was, "When times get hard hit your knees and call on God."

Talay leaves to cherish his memories to his children Kingsten Pittman,

Messiah Pittman, and Ahmorea Lyles. Parents Kimberly Sims and Fredrick (Stalena) Pittman. Grandparents Charles Sims and Alvin (Annie) Thomas. Brothers & Sisters Simone Sims, Teyana Green, Jerrica Pittman, Fredrick (Whitney) Pittman, Orion (Ilse) Pittman, Victor (Itzi) Pittman, Rod Pittman, and Damion Pittman. Special aunts Laqeisha Hayes, Rochelle Smith, and girlfriend Anquaneice Jones.

“ You were a hard working, fierce soul. You always knew you could overcome and never stopped trying. You never gave up even though your temper tried to get the best of you. You were one of my boys. The ones I was most proud of. A box van with a sectional sofa in it, a Dream Team Jersey, a Gunners jersey, and many trophies to prove you could do it all. I think of you often. The call I got from you to thank me for all I did for you will never be forgotten. You taught me as much as I taught you. I wish I had said that. Until I see you again. And I will~
