“ I've had Liz on my mind for several months and I am so sorry I didn't reach out to her and tell her one more time how much I loved her. She became my friend the moment we first met. We would sometimes see each other at an unexpected moment at Walmart and hug and laugh and talk about the good things in our lives. I find peace in knowing that she is with our Lord and Savior and will be suffering no more. I am honored that she allowed me to call her Liz and I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven. My heart is heavy for all of her family and loved ones that will surely miss her presence in the days, months, and years ahead.
