

Mary Sue Grimes

April 21, 1939 - December 7, 2016

Mary Sue, who was affectionately known as “Honey”, “Sue Sue” and Mom was a very special and exceptional woman. She exceeded expectations in many areas and occupations, such as a cook, caring for babies and elderly, the “Sue Sue” to many non-family children, caring sister, devoted wife, loving mother, and so much more. She was a woman who truly loved the Lord and shared many words of wisdom to others in very colorful stories. She more than adored her grandchildren; she lived for them and was always her children’s greatest supporter.

“Sue Sue” was preceded in death by her parents Harold and Thelma Varnum, Sr., her two sisters Betty Dian Morris and Maggie Lee Harrison. Remaining to cherish her memories her husband Samuel Grimes; two sons: Wallace (Heather) Gaither Jr., Willie (Tara) Gaither; her brothers: H.T. (Sue) Varnum of Thomasville, NC, Luther Varnum of Thomasville, NC, Harold Varnum of Commerce, GA, David (Dorothy) Varnum of Commerce, GA, James (Helen) Varnum of Commerce, GA, Tom Varnum of Commerce, GA; sisters: Helen Morris of Athens, GA, Margie Clark of Hinesville, GA, and Linda Faye Cochran of Gainesville, GA and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, and other relatives and friends
