

Maya Tiara Viust

June 12, 1998 - October 14, 2025

Maya Tiara Viust, 27, was born June 12, 1998 in Houston, TX and departed this life on October 14, 2025.

A sweet and deeply thoughtful soul, Maya was known for her creativity, intelligence, and quiet wisdom. She was a proud alumna of Fair Street Elementary, where she attended kindergarten. She graduated from Norcross High School in 2016 with Honors and was in the dual enrollment program with Georgia Gwinnett College. Afterwards, she graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology in 2020 with a B.S. in Computer Science with High Honors (Magna Cum Laude).

After college, Maya relocated to the Bay Area where she worked for 3 years as a software engineer at Black Rock, Inc. in San Francisco, California. She decided to re-enroll at Georgia Gwinnett College in order to pursue a career as a clinical psychologist, which reflected her deep empathy and lifelong curiosity about the human mind. She was a member of the Psi Chi Honor Society and was expected to graduate in December 2025. She was posthumously awarded a B.S. in Psychology.

From a young age, Maya found comfort and joy in the arts. She was an avid reader, often lost in books that took her to new worlds. Her love of writing and drawing was a window into her vivid imagination and emotional depth. Her journals, sketches, and short stories remain as lasting reminders of her beautiful mind and sensitive spirit.

Maya was a beloved daughter, granddaughter, great-granddaughter, niece, cousin, and friend. While many people didn't get a chance to know Maya on a deeper level, those who did admired her quiet wisdom, sharp thinking, and respectful manners. And though her life was short, her impact will be lasting.

Her passing is a deep reminder of the importance of mental health and the unseen struggles many carry. We grieve not only for the loss of her presence, but also for the dreams and chapters of her life that will remain unwritten.

Maya was preceded in death by her special great-aunt Rosalyn Turner; grandfather Hector Viust, Sr.; and great-grandparents John (Ruby Lee) Turner, Cirilo (Inocencia) Rivera, Enrique (Rosa) Viust, and Robert Marshall.

Maya is at peace now, and surrounded by the beauty she so often sought to create in the world

For my beloved Maya,

*May the light of Divine Love surround you,
May peace fill the path your soul now walks.
In the mystery that only God understands,
I release you with love, trusting that your spirit is held gently in eternal grace.*

*Your memory blooms within our hearts,
and your light will continue to guide us toward compassion,
understanding, and peace.*

*To Tara, Hector, and all family and friends,
may divine comfort embrace you,
and may love be your strength as Maya's light continues to shine.*

Que ton âme repose dans la lumière et l'amour éternels.

*With love and prayer,
Avec beaucoup d'amour
Kristel*
