She taught all of children well and raised them "on their knees". Her daughter Sharon especially thanks her mother for every "No." "You cannot." "I don't care what other children are doing, you can't." Her daughter Sharon will also hold dear in her memories the fact that she held her mother's hand for 63 years, and she will forever be grateful of the seeds her mother planted in her life and the lives of others during her earthly life.

Mother Marie Durant will forever be remembered for her love for God, her works of the ministry, her exuberant praise, worship, and dance, her words of encouragement, her love for everyone, and her prayers and dedication to God, her children, and her family and friends.
