

Oliver Gay

November 11, 1955 - June 26, 2017

Oliver Gay age 62 of Gainesville, GA peacefully passed into eternal life following a period of declining health on June 26, 2017. He was the second of seventh to the late Arthur and Sallie Gay of Lavonia, GA. He attended school at Wheeler High. He later was employed at Steggles Chicken Wings Atlanta University Campus for many years. He later became friends with CAM Newton's father Cecil Newton who has one of the largest landscaping businesses in Atlanta. Oliver was a very dedicated and hard worker. After working several years, he was injured and was unable to work.

He later moved to Gainesville, GA with his sister Quilla (Michelle) and her husband William in October of 2015. He began to attend church with them at Set Free Ministries where he enjoyed serving the Lord.

Oliver had many gifts and talents, he loved music, riding motorcycles, and spending time with family. He never met a stranger!

Oliver never married and did not have any children, but he had many friends. He is preceded in death by his father Arthur Gay, his mother Sallie Gay, two brothers Emmanuel Gay and Gregory Gay. He leaves to cherish his memories two sisters Marjorie Gay, Quilla (William) Gay Alexander of Gainesville, GA, two brothers Golden Gay, Lee Andrew Gay both of Atlanta, GA, the Wheeler family of Toccoa, GA, aunt Ruby Lee Spencer, the Leigh family of Atlanta, GA, the Gay family of Atlanta, GA, Iris Gay, Stacy Gay, Catherine Gay, Davis, Leonard, nephews: Gregory Gay Jr. of Virginia, Todd O. Russell of Gainesville, GA, one niece Cecila Carson of Trussville, AL, and a host of other family and friends.
