

Rhudenia Singleton

On January 7, 1954, the late Lula Mae & Johnny L. Singleton, Sr., a wonderful homemaker & a committed military veteran (respectively), received a special gift in Gainesville, GA and chose to name her Rhudenia “Terri” Singleton. She was born the second child and the baby girl amongst her siblings.

“Terri,” as she was lovingly known to most, received her education within the Hall County School system & completed her studies at Gainesville High School. It was there that her classmates all agreed that her spicy persona earned her the right to sit on the class throne as, “Miss Brickhouse Class of 1972.”

As she evolved into an adult she was employed as a Surgical Technician at Northeast Georgia Medical, and several years at Norton Construction, alongside her younger brother “June.” Terri later developed a passion for Home Health Care as a loving caregiver until she retired. She recently became very fond of her new found hobby as a Paparazzi Consultant. You might say, she shared her sparkle with us all.

Most recently, under the leadership of Pastor Stephen E. Samuel, Terri served as a faithful longtime member of St. John Baptist Church of Gainesville, GA. During her spiritual journey she was an active leader of the youth ministry for some time. She always expressed her appreciation for the spiritual guidance she received during her membership. Terri’s firm belief in God and her faith supported her through her health challenges and ultimately gave her peace. Terri was loving and supportive in many ways to her daughter Deidra.

Throughout Dee's childhood, Terri was always active as a chaperone for class trips and assisted with concessions at many of her school events. Deidra always expressed her obvious love, honor and respect for her mother. She later gifted her mother with 4 grandchildren who loved and cherished their Nana very much.

She will always be remembered by her loving family & friends, daughter-Deidra Radford, special friend- David Weems, four grandchildren-Malique Stringer, Jonay, Jonathan, Jr. & Josaryah Latimer, brother-Kelvin Singleton (Shuntan) of Atlanta, GA, a host of nieces and nephews-Cheryl, Andrea & Andre' (Andre) Castleberry, Adrian & Nick Singleton, brother-in-law Jerry Castleberry (Veronica), Special friends Lora Thomas, Victor Sosebee, Warren Hancock. Near & Patience Jackson & Angela Hughey

Loving memories of her loved ones that preceded her in death, parents Johnny L & Lula Mae Singleton, her oldest sister Veronica "Ronnie" Castleberry and younger brother Johnny "June " Singleton.
