

Roger Smith Sr.

October 30, 1947 - June 16, 2024

Roger Smith Sr., age 77, passed away suddenly from complications from a sudden illness on Father's Day June 16, 2024, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center.

Roger Sr, was a truly special person. He was deeply cherished by his family, and some friends, and the memories of his warmth and kindness live on in their hearts. He has been described with a strength of character that has a tremendous impact on those around him. It's important to honor his joyous spirit and the love he shared with many others. His presence continues to be felt through the legacy he leaves behind in his children and grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife Jacqueline Daniels-Smith, and all of his siblings, except, Shirley King, the only surviving sister. He is survived by his children which are, Roger Smith Jr, Maya Harrison, Samuel Smith, & Martha Smith, all of Gainesville, Ga. He also is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

Roger worked for many years for Gainesville DOT, Northeast Georgia Medical Center, and a few minor jobs before later enjoying his retirement.

The family will hold a small remembrance for him at the home of his daughter,

Maya Harrison, at a later time. Only family, and some friends, (by invitation only by the family, if requested and then acceptance) are asked to be in attendance. The family requests that no flowers be sent because 'you didn't send them to me when I was alive'. (In Roger Smith Sr's own words).
