

Sabine Latrell Barnett

November 23, 1976 - January 15, 2026

Sabine Barnett was born on November 23, 1976, to Joe Lewis Rouse and the late Martha Smith. She was called home after a life filled with love, laughter, and devotion to family and friends.

Sabine was a proud graduate of Winder-Barrow High School, Class of 1994. She was known for her fun-loving and outgoing spirit that captured the hearts of everyone she met. Her warm personality and joyful presence made lasting impressions on countless lives.

She had a deep love for cooking, singing, and playing music. Above all, she cherished time spent with her family and friends. Whether gathered around a meal she prepared or enjoying music together, Sabine created memories that will forever be treasured.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Taneshia Rucker, mother, Martha Smith; her stepfather, Lamar Smith; and her grandmothers, Rosa Mae Rouse and Hattie B. Bailey.

Sabine leaves to cherish her precious memories to her father, Joe Lewis Rouse; two loving daughters, Tylina Barnett of Atlanta, Georgia, and Samira Robinson of Gainesville, Georgia; one son Tyler D. Barnett and a beloved son-in-law of Atlanta, Georgia. She is also survived by four brothers: Eric Morrow, Jimmy Scott Jr., Jermaine Barnett, and Jontae' Smith, all of Gainesville, Georgia.

She also leaves to mourn her parents-in-love, Danny and Emily Watkins of Atlanta, Georgia; Special friend Missy Randolph. Significant others: Donald F. Mahaffey, and Walter J. Robinson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Sabine's legacy of love, laughter, and strength will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
