“ Putting together an all together of memorial of my grandmother Pat that passed in April my grandfather winburn short after my grandmother and my mother Sandy Voyles kenimer of the place they all loved . The ocean I know have all 3 of their ashes and I don't believe threats where they wanna stay sitting in on a shelf. I have my grandparents and my mom in my necklace I had made and I have a lot of extra of my mom and some of my grandmother and grandfathers ashes. I want to release them on an island we have been to sent I was born basically. The dates I have set for this will be in August. I can't celebrate my birthday anymore because the one that gave the my birthday is no longer here with me and missed so much so the time she spent in the hospital from july29-august 12th will be the days I'm trying to get everyone welcome to come and celebrate her life and me to release her, my grandmother and grandfather where they had the most peace. Please get with me for further info as I have taken a personal work leave. For July 29th-august 13th 2023 to cope and heal and hope have some closure to this . 3 all back to bk loved ones while me helping my daughter give birth to our adorable grandson and helping her through the first few months of his life I didn't have to grieve my losses so I have the chance to get loved ones together and share this and release them to where they all loved ... love and miss my mom and grandparents so much and I hope we can pull this off .. thank you so much love her daughter Tricia

“ Sandy was my babysitter after my parents divorce and was a major support system for my sister and I. My grandmother became close friends and loved her dearly before she moved back to Paulding County. Loved her like a mama during that time. Made the best Cinnamon candy ever!! You will be greatly miss3d.

Tricia Voyles - August 17, 2022 at 02:33 AM

“ This is so hard but I just woke up and saw this obituary of my mom and it wasn't even her pic . So the pics below are of my mom. A service will be at a later date hopefully in September where she lived at the lake. Will send and keep family posted . Just have to keep the good memories she had with her family and friends and especially grandkids and great grand babies.. we love her so much and mom I miss you so much !!!
