April 27, 2002 - March 17, 2025

Shariah Monae Cantrell was born on April 27, 2002 to Royneice Lee in Gainesville, Ga. She attended Gainesville High School and graduated in May of 2022. She made her presence known with her beautiful laugh and smile. She made many friends and left others wanting to be near her. Her favorite words were "Eat-Eat" and those that knew her, know how she loved to eat. After graduation, Shariah spent her days with her family, spreading joy to everyone around her. She was the sunshine that helped us make it through each day.

Shariah was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, Grady "Big Daddy" Richardson Sr., Bernice Cheeks Watkins, Willie B. Watkins, and her great uncle Grady Richardson, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving mother Royneice Lee. Her devoted little Big brother Clayton "C.J." Clark. “ From the day I met Shariah, I loved her big. She was an angel and full of love. Her big beautiful smile, her desire to “eat” anything I was eating, her love and hugs. I will love you always sweet girl. Rest in peace and I'll see you again. Love you Ms Kim
