“ I absolutely adored Ms. Shirley. I met her when she moved to Winder after the hurricane. When she cooked lunch for Debra's work she would always fix me a plate and give it to me when I brought the mail. The best Cajun food I've ever had! I never saw her without a smile on her face. Debra, I'm sorry for you and your family. Heaven now has a sweet, sweet angel.

Deborah, Darlene and Derek. I am so very saddened by the loss of my friend. Talk about times times yes when I joined Fellowship, Shirley is the one who helped me with my adjustment since we had been friends way back in the day at the church on Louisiana Avenue. Yes Jesus some fond memories.. Shirley was a very very beautiful spirit that it was hard for anyone not to love. But what was radiant about her, other than her physical beauty was her love for the lord. God bless her soul she is with Jesus now and just know I will be keeping you all lifted up in prayers for peace and consolation of the Holy Spirit
