“ I just found out...I still can't believe this is real. He was the one person who reminded me that there are still good men out there, truly good. He never just listened to respond, he listened because he cared. He always followed up, he remembered the small things, and made me feel like I mattered. Even across the distance. Even when life got in the way.

He had so much ahead of him. So many plans. And he deserved nothing but good in return. I don't understand how he's gone. I really don't. But I'll never forget him. He mattered to me. And he always will. My deepest condolences to the family. Rest peacefully, Tarus. 🕊️
