

Travis Raynard Butts

September 21, 1968 - May 27, 2023

Travis Raynard Butts, 54, of Gainesville, Georgia, passed away on May 27, 2023 due to an extended battle with cancer. He was born September 21, 1968, in Gainesville, Georgia; the son of Newton Doyle Butts & Alberta (Tate) Butts.

Travis was a native of Gainesville, spending grades K-12 in the Gainesville City School System. He would go on to graduate from Gainesville High School in 1986, and he would immediately enlist into the United States Marine Corps. A Gulf War veteran, he spent eight years in the Marines, opting for an honorable discharge in 1994. During his military tenure, he would be stationed at Naval Weapons Station Earle in New Jersey and eventually Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune in North Carolina. He did not go alone, however. He would marry his high school sweetheart, Angelia (Jones) Butts, in May of 1987, and she would be there to accompany him along the east coast. They would go on to have two children, Rashiya Butts (34), and Dreshad Butts (33). Travis, a former athlete himself, loved sports. He in particular enjoyed the North Carolina Tarheels & the Golden State Warriors basketball. It wasn't a rarity to catch him in attendance at a local high school basketball or football game either. He also enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren: Arien (11), Benjamin (1), and Brenden (7 months).

As much as he loved sports and his family, Travis was more so a man of god, growing up attending First Baptist Church in Gainesville, Georgia. He eventually would go on to become a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Flowery Branch, Ga, where he remained an active member since 2001. Travis is preceded in passing by his brothers, Michael Anthony Butts (1995) & Jeffrey Scott Butts (2011). His father, Newton Doyle Butts (2008). His mother, Alberta Butts (2011). His is also preceded by his wife, Angelia Butts (2012). He will be survived by his children, Rashiya & Dreshad Butts of Oakwood, Georgia. His brother, Timothy Butts of Flowery Branch, Georgia. His sisters, Rhonda (Elaine) Butts & Staci (Baldy) Butts of Gainesville, Georgia. His nephews: Tramon Butts, Jurryan Butts, Javon Butts, and Kell Butts. His nieces, Janai Carradine, Jade Butts, Kamari Butts, and Jenesis Butts. His grandchildren: Arien Butts, Benjamin Butts, and Brenden Hunter. He also leaves a host of cousins, extended family, and friends.

“ Travis was apart of our lives for 10 plus years! He was wonderful to me and my children!
Me, Alexander and Bella loved him dearly!

Richardson/Gonzalez Family - June 03, 2023 at 11:15 AM

“ Travis came into my life when I was 13. The love I felt from Travis was indescribable.

Everyone has their special comfort. The thing they do when life's rough and they need to calm down and relax like watching movies or eating comfort food, etc. Mine was simply going home to mom and Travis. When I was home, the love I felt reminded me that everything will be okay and everything works out as it's supposed to. We would watch movies that Travis always fall asleep to, but he'd pretend like he was just "resting his eyes" and we'd giggle. We'd watch Travis' sports and look up old 80's music on YouTube.

There is beauty in the mundane.

He loved to tell us stories about crazy things he and Mike did, about his dad, about his mom and how she didn't put up with shit from anyone. So many stories. He and mom would trade stories for hours, they'd tell the same stores over and over but would laugh like it was the first time.

When I was an early teenager, I became extremely attached to my mom and Travis. An attachment that would be so foundational for the adult I would become. Travis drove me to school every morning, he came to every track meet, taught me how to drive and vetted any boys I brought home. He dropped me off at my first day of college and picked me up promptly on my last day. Travis was always there for me.

He taught me kindness, hard work and a fathers love.

His relationship with my mom showed me what love should look like. They laughed all the time and had date nights every Wednesday. They took such good care of each other. Because of him, I know what to look for in my future husband.

We had so many nicknames for Travis. My mom called him Travis

Anne because he'd call her Beth Anne. "You're so pretty Beth Anne" will forever play in my head. I'd call him fumble fingers because his fat fingers didn't seem to be able to hold onto anything. He called me "my sweet Bella".

I will think of him everyday for the rest of my life. He gave my mom, brother and me enough love to last a lifetime. He loved us and boy did we love him. Time flies, and everyday is a gift. When it is my time to go, I know Travis will be one of the angels waiting for me.

“ Beth, I am so sorry for your loss, it's so hard to lose someone you love so much and I know you loved him unconditionally as he loved you. You my friend are an incredible person, You are the most unselfish person I know. You cared for Travis, and you were there for him when he needed it the most. You never once complained because you loved him that much. There is nothing you wouldn't have done for him and it showed. Keep the memories near and dear to your heart and when bad days come lean on those memories to get you through.
