Mother Lackey was an encourager and inspiration to me as a young Deacon's wife and worker in the GNWBA.. Her smile was as genuine and her personality. She truly used her spiritual gifts to bless others. Our sincere prayers are with the family as you walk through this earthly journey knowing Mother Lackey is in Heaven, while you are preparing to go be with her some sweet day.

Much love,.

“ I remember Bill, as she was called, when I was a little girl going to Macedonia Baptist Church where her father and my father served on the Deacon Board. I remember her and her sister Lottie as the most beautiful teenagers we knew! Her being crowned the first Miss Carver High was so fitting👑 Rest well in Jesus arms, Bill❤️
