

Walter "Hank" Witt Jr.

July 20, 1948 - March 2, 2024

A marine, Walter Witt Jr (Hank) was born into the world on July 20, 1948, to the union of Walter and Mary Witt who preceded in death. He was the fourth child born to that union. Kathryn, Shirley and Gil preceded him in death. Hank joined the Marine Corps in 1967 and was proud to serve his country honorably for four years.

He served in the Vietnam War that help to defend democracy in the world. Whenever he would run into a marine, he would proudly greet them with "Semper Fi" or "Oorah". He was very proud to be a marine and would say "I am a Marine" anytime someone put limits on what he could do.

After leaving the Marine Corps. he joined the Chicago Fire Department. He served for over 17 years.

He met Diane in 1972 and married in 1981. To this union was (2) sons. Cody (deceased) and Walter Witt III.

Hank had a kind heart and would bring joy with his humor to any event. His favorite saying when he disagreed with someone was "You Funny".

Walter Witt Jr. (Hank) departed this life on March 3, 2024. He leaves to mourn his memories, his son Walter Witt III, Sister Mary (Andrew) Foxworth, nieces, Debra (Harrison) Banks, Lolita (Cornell) Grant, Annette (James) Mintz, Nicole (Chico) Payne, Michell (Aaron) Griffin, Trisha, Eugene (Kimberly) Tipton.
