

Wilhelmina Susan Daniels

February 10, 1947 - May 8, 2023

Mrs. Wilhelmina Susan Daniels, 76, of Georgia, passed away, after a brief illness, Monday, May 8, 2023, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center, surrounded by her loving family. She was the wife of the late Clifford Daniels Sr.

Ms. Daniels was born February 10, 1947 in Philadelphia, PA, a daughter to her late parents William and Sarah (Spearman) Clark.

Wilhelmina also known as “Mother,” was educated in the Pennsylvania School System graduating from Germantown High School Class of 1965. After high school, she met Clifford who was the love of her life. The two eloped and moved to New York City, in 1966. She relocated to New Haven, CT in 1967, where she started her new journey and found employment working as a CNA for Whitney Manor Care Center in Hamden, CT. retiring after 30 years of service. Wilhelmina committed her life to the Lord, serving as the Second Mother for The Salvation and Deliverance Church of New Haven, CT, under the leadership of Pastor Bishop Ezekiel Newton of NY. “Mother” served under the Pastor as a caretaker and she filled so many roles. She was very supportive to the young congregants and church families. She had extensive knowledge of the bible. Everyone who attended Salvation and Deliverance Church with her, loved her. They knew they could count on her for a Peppermint and if no one else had one, “Mother” did. She will be missed deeply.

She leaves to cherish her memories one son, Clifford Daniels Jr. of Lawrenceville, GA; two daughters, Sonja (Gregg) Self of Braselton, GA and Christine Daniels of Duluth, GA; eleven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren, her twin brother William Clark of Philadelphia, PA; her baby brother, Frank Norris Sr. of Lancaster PA; several nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends, including “Mother’s” two devoted friends, Mother Anthony of New Haven and Sister Shirley Hamilton of Jacksonville, FL. She was predeceased by a sister, Loretta Clark Atkinson.
