

William Henry Butts Sr.

May 2, 1936 - May 19, 2019

Mr. William Henry Butts, Sr. was born in Buford, GA to the late John and Willie T. Butts. He was preceded in death by his wife Alice Mae Johnson Butts. Also, by one son Kenneth Jackson, grandson Raymond McGowan, and brother, Doyle Butts. He is a longtime resident of Gainesville where he attended Fair Street School. Well-known by his family and friends as Hen, he was a quiet and gentle soul that worked and took care of his family. After 44 years of service, Hen retired from New Holland Mill. He enjoyed sports, especially baseball, spending time with his family and playing cards with his friends. Hen was well-known for his comical wit, his smile and making others laugh. His loving presence will forever be cherished by his children: Cathy Mason of Gainesville, GA; Christine Butts of Snellville, GA; Tammy Jackson of Gainesville, GA, Rickey Butts of Gainesville, GA; William Butts of Gainesville, GA; Carlous Butts of Gainesville, GA; Glenn (Tarshal) Butts of East Point, GA; Tess Whelchel of Gainesville, GA; and O'Rhonda (Reggie) Ingram of Snellville, GA.

Hen leaves behind two brothers: John Butts, and Jesse Butts and three sisters: Carrie Lou Hudson, Betty Butts and Joyce Mitchell.

Hen will forever be in the hearts of his grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and host of relatives and friends.

Henry and I worked together at New Holland. He helped me in countless ways. He was a very proud man and rightfully so.
