

William Johnson

May 20, 1938 - March 11, 2024

William Johnson, affectionately called “Papa Will” was born May 20, 1938. Papa Will transitioned home to be with the Lord on Monday March 11th, 2024. He was the only son and oldest of 8 children of parents Bennie and Elizabeth Johnson. He married his childhood sweetheart Mattie Grace Carruth very young in life and were married for 46 years until her passing in 2004. Together they had 5 sons. William attended Fair Street High School where he played football. He learned and mastered his trade as a builder from his father; a skill that was often in demand throughout Gainesville. He retired from Northeast Georgia Medical Center where he finished his career as part of their in-house construction team. We’re thankful for the time we’ve had with Papa Will, and while his earthly presence will be missed, we rejoice in knowing he’s reached his Heavenly home. Papa Will is preceded in death by his wife of 46 years, Mattie Grace Johnson and parents Bennie and Elizabeth Johnson, and sister Carolyn Witherspoon. He is survived by his 5 sons: William Darrell (Mary), Reginald Lamar (LeJerdis) Bennie Randall (Lorna) Alvin Edwin (Gwendolyn) Terence Anthony (Sherry). He also leaves behind to cherish his memories 12 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. Also mourning his passing are 6 sisters Linda Faye()Buffington, Johnnie, Margret (Otis)Hendrix, Nancy(Jerry) Ellison, Ernestine Lipscomb, and Eddie(Jerry)Pittman and a host of nieces and nephews.
