

Xavier Tyler Stephens

January 18, 2005 - April 2, 2025

Xavier left this world too soon. Behind him was a legacy of love, laughter and deep devotion. He was known for his vibrancy, and fearless heart. He had a passion for life that was hard to ignore.

His eyes would sparkle when he talked about football and cars. He lived fast, loved hard and gave everything he had to the people he cared for. A proud father, his heart beat the strongest for his daughter, Lyanna, she was his everything. He carried her smile and prayed for her in every step he took.

Family meant everything to Xavier, he wanted to be loved and receive it in return. He loved his uncle, Jonathon. A man he could depend on in the darkest of night and someone he would always call upon when times got rough.

Xavier's passing was predeceased by Dolly Brown, Great Grandmother, who he lost on February 8, 2025. He was survived by his daughter, Lyanna, mother Jessica Stephens, brother, Micah Stephens, who he bragged about being the smartest and fye with computers, Deidra Stephens, Grandmother who adored and felt him within, Grandfather, Lee Stephens, Uncles Jonathon Stephens and Patrick Millwood along with countless family and friends who will carry his memory in their hearts forever. His light will Never fade and his voice will always be heard within Iyannas laughter. Rest easy my dear son, you'll always be deeply loved and never forgotten
