

Yvonne Leverette Robinson

November 10, 1957 - June 28, 2023

Yvonne Leverette Goudelock Robinson was born November 10th, 1957 to the late Inez R. & Sylvester Leverette. She was a member of First Baptist Church where at the age of 15 she accepted Christ under the pastorship of Rev. G David Horton.

Yvonne excelled in the youth forum and singing in the choir. She also served many years as an adult usher.

A 1976 graduate of Johnson High School, Yvonne was an avid plant lover with a green thumb and a carefree spirit with a zest for life. A lover of Whitney Houston and contemporary gospel music, she could usually be found dancing and singing around the house. She lived life on her own terms. She never met a stranger and was very generous with everything in her life. She routinely went out of her way to help others.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her parents, siblings William Don, David, and Linda, her husband Larry D. Robinson, and her sister-in-love Lynn Leverette.

The people left to cherish her memory are her daughters Brittney and Andrea, her grandson Dior who was the light of her life, siblings Rickey, Michael, Barbara, Zelda, sister-in-love Carol Jean Leverette, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and many friends including her best friends Carol 'Yvonne' Broadwater, Rhonda Evans, Marsha Turner Teekasingh, and Miranda 'Toot Toot' Brown who all loved her unconditionally. A special thanks to Diane Williams, Katherine Campbell, Connie Turner, and Kathy Wilmont who cared for her in her later years.

In lieu of flowers, her daughters ask that a donation made in her name to the American Diabetes Association or The Parkinson's Foundation be made instead.
